June. 11

Dear Mother and Father - Sunday was a lovely day - In the afternoon we had tea on the municipal island. In the evening Mr & Mrs Sawyer going rich people from Michigan took us to dinner. The seasons themselves of unseasonable - cause of so much translation Mrs. Speer has her daughter who is a junior at Bryn Maur - she has had her out for 3 months thinking the trip would broaden her more than college.
The beauty of Budapest is breath-taking. How they keep up when their country is seduced to Budapest and a few acres don't know - Hungary lost more than any other country in war - all the things that Wilson and the treaties promised them were gone back on -

Most of the <sup>2</sup> ~~stay~~ ~~and~~ have out of door eating place right in the street. The people certainly know how to be leisurely and have a good time. The men wear gloves in June even when bareheaded and all carry canes.
Exchange on the dollar is worse here than in Italy. It is strange to see what imperialism lurks in the heart of a good internationalist like me. That I want every thing to stay low except the American dollar.

In Italy we could see militarism on every side.
Many troops of young Fascists in uniform in the cathedral swearing allegiance to a greater Italy. But in Hungary there are no disillusioned <sup>on</sup> war ~~that~~ they are relying <sup>on</sup> cultural forces

there is a cultural conference here now of Finns, Slovaks and Hungarians who are supposed to have historical & cultural affinity.

June 12 - Still no mail.
The meetings are more and more absorbing - the Lutherans don't mind that I should do anything but June church work.

There is a chance they may set up a regional office in ~~Atlanta~~ in which case I would not get home as much as I would have to stay there between trips.
This is the most polite place I ever saw - about 10 men know you in

Dear Mother and Father

Sunday was a lovely day. In the afternoon we had tea on the municipal island. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. [illegible][illegible] rich people from Michigan took us to dinner. The [illegible] themselves got tiresome because of so much [illegible].

Mrs [illegible] has her daughter who is a junior at [illegible] [illegible]. She has had her our for 3 months thinking the trip would [illegible] her more than college.

The beauty of Budapest is breath-taking. How they keep up when their country is reduced to Budapest and a few acres I dont know. Hungary lost more than any other country in war. All the things that Wilson and the treaties promised then were gone back on. Most of the restaurants have out of door eating places right in the streets. The people certainly know how to be leisurely and have a good time. The men wear gloves in June even when barehanded and all carry canes.

Exchange on the dollar is worse here than in Italy. It is strange to see what imperialism [illegible] in the heart of a good internationalist like me that I want everything to stay low except the American dollar.

In Italy we could see militarism on every side. Many troops of young Fascists in uniform in the cathedrals swearing allegiance to a greater Italy but in Hungary they are so disillusioned on war that they are relying on [illegible] cultural forces. There is a culture conference here now of [illegible] Estonians and Hungarians who are supposed to have [illegible] and cultural addinity.

June 12 – Still no mail. The meetings are more and more [illegible]. The Lutherans dont think the y should do anything but [illegible] church work.

There is a chance they may set up a regional office in Atlanta in which case I would not get home as much as I would have to stay there between trips.

This is the most polite place I ever saw. About 10 men [illegible] you in and out of the hotel. I forget and sail past them.

I cant even read the signs here or get a cure to the language.

Much love

Eleanor
