

REPUBLICANS

ON THE 19TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF VA.

Meet in the City of Bristol, Va., and Nominate Maj. H. C. Wood of Scott as the Candidate.

BRISTOL, VA. Aug. 26, 1892. The delegates to the convention began to arrive yesterday, and by the time the evening trains were all in a large number of delegates and visitors had reached the city. There are about three hundred delegates appointed from the fourteen counties of the district, and it is estimated that about two hundred of these are in attendance to-day. Besides these there are many of the representative men of the party present as spectators.

An informal meeting was held in the assembly hall of Hotel Fairmount last night, to hear reports from the various counties as to the prospects of the canvass, and the work to come before the convention to-day. Judge M. B. Wood, of Bristol, was made chairman of the conference, and on motion of Maj. H. C. Wood the counties were called in turn and each was reported by one or more members of the delegation. Spicy talks were made by Judge Phil. W. Strother, Col. Jas. S. Browning, Hon. J. Lucian Gleaves, Col. C. Stemp, Hon. A. M. Dickenson and others. The conference adjourned to meet at Opera House, Friday at 12 m.

FRIDAY. At 12 m. H. E. McCoy, of the district committee, called the meeting to order. The name of J. L. Gleaves, of Wythe was proposed for temporary chairman. Mr. Gleaves accepted the honor in a short, neatly turned speech. He was frequently interrupted by applause.

On motion of H. C. Wood, W. E. Dickenson, of Russell, was made secretary of the convention, and the newspapers of Bristol and the district assistant secretaries. A. M. Dickenson, in seconding the motion, remarked that he thought the motion was eminently appropriate, as the plan proposed would give the papers a chance to get a little religion. [Laughter.]

On motion of D. F. Bailey, of Bristol, committees were appointed on credentials, organization, and platform and resolutions, as follows, each county being called and selecting its own committees: On credentials—J. G. Kegler, R. O. Baldwin, R. E. Chase, C. Painter, G. Miller, J. W. McBroom, J. P. Corn, A. H. Atkins, E. H. Case, G. Q. Hickman, J. L. Litz, S. F. Hurt, J. A. Brown.

On platform and resolutions—W. C. Hadrick, R. O. Baldwin, W. H. Dickenson, P. W. Strother, J. P. Legg, John Wyal, W. E. Dickenson, E. A. Hoze, A. M. Dickenson, J. G. Watts, J. B. F. Mills, J. P. Hamlet, J. W. Hortensine, M. B. Wood. Permanent organization—J. G. Kegler, R. O. Baldwin, R. E. Chase, P. W. Strother, J. W. Elr, G. W. Miller, J. R. Campbell, C. M. Campbell, C. M. Parks, A. H. Atkins, W. K. Labar, E. D. Rickett, Ira Gilliam, W. A. Richmond, H. E. McCoy.

On motion of Judge M. B. Wood the rules of the Virginia house of delegates were adopted as the rules of the convention. McBroom, of Russell, was in favor of the convention adjourning until 4 p. m., and moved to that effect. This was met with such widespread and pronounced opposition that Judge McBroom withdrew his motion, and the convention adjourned after fixing eight o'clock as the hour for reassembling.

EVENING SESSION. At eight o'clock the evening session commenced with the rendition of two selections by the band.

There were a number of spectators present, among them being a few ladies. Chairman Gleaves called the convention to order, thanked the audience for their presence (especially the ladies) and called for the report of the committee on credentials. Chairman D. F. Bailey, of Bristol, then read the official list of the delegates from all the counties and from Bristol city. The committee's report was unanimously adopted.

The report of the committee on permanent organization was then read by Chairman J. G. Watts, of Tazewell. He said the committee favored J. L. Gleaves, of Wythe, for permanent chairman, Walter Dickenson, of Russell, for permanent secretary, and W. E. Williams, of Smyth, for permanent sergeant-at-arms. The report was unanimously adopted. Mr. Gleaves made a ringing speech in accepting the permanent chairmanship.

The report of the committee on platform and resolutions was called for and the resolutions were read as follows, being adopted unanimously: THE PLATFORM.

WHEREAS, The national republican party in convention, assembled in Minneapolis in June last nominated for president Benj. Harrison and for vice-president Whitelaw Reid; therefore be it Resolved, That we endorse the nomination as being the logical ticket of events and therefore the best that could be made.

2nd. That we endorse the platform of the national republican party. 3rd. That the present democratic doctrine of "tariff for revenue only" with "ultimate" free trade as its objective point, is detrimental to all interests and all sections of our common country, whilst the declaration of their platform in favor of free wool, free ores, free coal and free timber, would, if enacted in a law, totally destroy the greatest sources of our prosperity and development in Southwest Virginia.

4th. That the provisions of the "infamous Anderson-McCormick bill," avowedly enacted for fraudulent purposes and faithfully enforced by the democratic party in this State to secure their vile object, compel us to endorse and approve all efforts from whatsoever source they may come which seek to secure a free vote and fair count.

5th. That this convention earnestly urge thorough and efficient organization of the republican party in each county of the district and recommend the formation of republican leagues in same, whose officers shall be active, influential men, and in perfect accord with our candidates, our party and the existing administration. The chair then declared that the convention was ready to receive nominations for congress for the Ninth Virginia district. The roll of counties was then called, in order to give each county the opportunity of putting before the convention any one they might favor.

There was no answer until the county of Scott was reached, and the chairman of that county begged to give way to Tazewell county. J. S. Browning, of Tazewell, then took the floor, and in a fiery speech, spiced with genuine wit and humor, working up to a fine climax and ending in a tremendous burst of applause with the announcement in thunder tones of the name of Major Henry Clinton Wood, of Scott county. The call then proceeded until the county of Wythe was reached, whereupon J. L. Gleaves vacated the chair and called Hon. I. C. Fowler to take his place. He then addressed the convention, and said his county had no favorite son of his own, but would pledge herself to support the nominee of the convention. He took occasion to pay a high tribute to H. C. Wood, declaring that if the republican ensign were entrusted to him it would not trail in the dust. "Wythe county, Mr. Chairman, takes great pleasure in seconding the nomination of Maj. H. C. Wood."

Bristol city was then called, and David Bailey rose to respond. He started to speak in his place among the Bristol delegation but so loud were the calls for it that Mr. Bailey, after a characteristic speech, commending the gentleman's record in war and peace, said that Bristol was proud to second the nomination of H. C. Wood.

Mr. Rockingham Paul, of Bristol, took the floor and demurred against the nomination of Maj. Wood. The principal reason he gave was that Mr. Wood had not said he wanted it. He was interrupted by frequent cheers for Wood.

Col. Browning made a point of order that the question of nominations being before the house, the gentlemen were not speaking to it. If he had a nomination to make let him make it speak to it. Not sustained by the chair.

Mr. Paul then moved that the convention adjourn till to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Lost.

Col. C. Stemp then took the floor and seconded the nomination of Maj. Wood in a strong speech. Judge Phil. W. Strother, of Giles, seconded the nomination of Maj. Wood in a very forcible speech.

Senator J. B. F. Mills, of Wise made a very neat speech eulogizing Maj. Wood, and seconding his nomination. Landon Boyd (col.), of Washington county, also seconded the nomination. —Brown (col.), of Pocahontas, Tazewell county, seconded the nomination, pledging his county for a large majority.

Rockingham Paul again got the floor and held it some time, while calls of "stage!" "stage!" made it impossible for him to be heard. When quiet was restored, he reiterated his objection to the manner of making the nomination—that the delegates had not consulted together. He seemed oblivious of the fact that the sentiment of the convention was unanimously in favor of Wood, whether by consultation or not.

Col. Browning explained that the whole convention, except the gentleman from Bristol, (Paul) had opportunity to deliberate. He moved that the nomination be made by acclamation, which was met with cheers.

Mr. Hoge, of Scott seconded the motion in a neat speech. The motion was carried unanimously (except Paul).

On motion, a committee of three was appointed to notify Maj. Wood, of his nomination. J. G. Watts, A. M. Dickenson and Jno. P. Hamlet were appointed by the chair to notify him and conduct him to the stage. The appearance of Maj. Wood, under escort of the committee, was greeted with cheers which for a time drowned the music of the band.

Maj. Wood declared that he had not expected the nomination, had not desired it, and had told members of the convention that he would not accept it; but in obedience to the mandate of his party, he accepted the honor conferred, and would do what he could to carry the banner of his party to success. He urged all the members to lend their aid to secure success.

Col. A. M. Dickenson, of Smyth, being loudly called for, responded in an eloquent and witty speech. Stuart F. Lindsey, of Bristol was called for, and made a long speech, discussing the issues of the campaign.

Jno. G. Watts, of Tazewell, offered a resolution thanking the citizens of Bristol for the courtesies extended to the convention. Carried. Dr. R. C. Craig, of Washington, offered a resolution requesting Messrs. McKinley, of Ohio, and Reed, of Maine, to address the citizens of this district at Bristol.

I. C. Fowler moved that two members be added to the congressional committee. Carried; and J. L. Gleaves, of Wythe and W. G. Young, of Tazewell, were added to the committee. Col. Jas. S. Browning was called for, and made a ringing speech, eliciting applause at almost every sentence. There being no further business before the convention, at 11:30 p. m. it adjourned sine die.

HENRY CLINTON WOOD, the nominee, is a native of Scott county, he having first seen the light of day near Estillville, and was brought up as a farmer boy.

Before he arrived at the age of 21 years he enlisted as a soldier in the Confederate cause, having raised the first company sent to the war from Scott county, in the spring of '61. He took out in his company eighty-eight men, only two of whom were twenty-one years of age. He served with Stonewall Jackson in all his brilliant campaigns, and won distinguished honors as a soldier, having been promoted to the rank of major before he was 23. He commanded his brigade in the desperate charges at Chancellorsville and the bloody battle of Winchester, displaying signal abilities and courage as a field commander.

At the close of the war he returned home and devoted himself to the work of rebuilding the wastes of the war. He engaged with his brothers in the mercantile business at Estillville, at the same time taking an active interest in the affairs of his State and county.

In 1875 he was elected to the State senate, where he served eight years, being president of that body in 1880-82. He was chiefly instrumental in securing the charter of the S. A. & O. railroad, and was the president of the road for ten years, resigning after the completion of the road to Spersers Ferry. He devoted all his energies to the building of this road, which has done so much for the development of this country, using largely of his private means to carry on the work. He was also largely instrumental in securing the charters for the New River railway and the Clinch Valley extension.

As a public officer Maj. Wood was always active in the interests of his people, and was always found in his place when the senate was in session. It is safe to say that no man in Virginia has done more work, and more efficient work, in the development of Southwest Virginia than Major Wood, both by using his own means and by inducing capitalists from the East to make investments here.

Major Wood is pleasant and affable in manner, and has a large list of personal friends as any man in the State; indeed, it would be difficult to find a man in a half-dozen counties in this section who does not know and like "Clint" Wood.

He is modest and retiring in disposition and has only accepted public office at the earnest call of his countrymen. He did not seek the nomination given him last night with such unanimity by the representative men of his party, and only consented to take the nomination in obedience to the overwhelming call of his party.

Convention Notes from the Bristol Courier.

Chairman Gleaves is a fine presiding officer. The colored brother from Tazewell made a good speech.

It was very decidedly a case of the office seeking the man.

The delegates were delighted with the hospitable reception in Bristol.

There was a large crowd of spectators last night, and they behaved very well.

Col. "Jim" Browning was the orator of the convention; and he is good-looking, too.

The crowd seemed to be in the humor to hear speaking, and their humor was gratified.

Rockingham Paul furnished the fun for the "gallery gods." Guess that's what he did for.

Browning brought down the house by his humorous description of his reception in Bristol ten years ago.

All the counties of the district were represented except Craig. That is "Cyclone Jim" Marshall's county.

No man ever had finer compliments paid him than Maj. Clint Wood received last night, and no man ever deserved them more.

Alex Dickenson, of Smyth, was the wit of the convention. He knows a good thing when he says it—and so did the crowd last night.

Much of the success in the entertainment of the convention, and in making the stay of the delegates in the city pleasant, was due to the thoughtful and kindly care of H. E. McCoy, president of the Dominion National Bank. He knows how to treat his friends.

PRICES IN 1851 AND 1892.

Figures Which Show the Value of Protection to Farmers. (From a Letter in the Indianapolis Journal).

Having in my possession an old day book, in which are recorded the sales of a retail general store in Greenfield, Hancock county, Ind., during the year 1851, curiosity led me to make some comparisons between the prices then and now. The following lists of ten items which the farmers sold, and ten which they purchased, with the accompanying prices in 1851, are taken promiscuously from this day book, and represent sales and purchases made at various times during the year, and although, of course, the prices, then as now, varied somewhat with the season, in no instance do I find them lower for things purchased by the farmers, nor higher for the things they sold than here given. I also give the prices of the same items here to-day:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Rows include wheat, corn, oats, beans, chickens, hams, bacon, lard, butter, eggs, calico, muslin, flannel, linen, gingham, sugar, salt, nails, common shovel, stable fork.

There are some things in this old book which would be interesting reading for those who long to return to the "good old times" of the revenue tariff era. For instance, I find the following record: "To one grain shovel, to be paid for with two bushels of wheat." Such shovels to-day are sold for 75 cents.

The Birmingham (Ala.) Evening News (Dem.) says of the election in that State: "It was a frightfully hot fight between brethren of the same household. A majority of the votes received by each candidate for Governor were Democratic; the question— which candidate received the larger white vote—is an open one. The News believes that Kolb had the bigger fraction."

"Any Democrat who will vote the third party ticket is a coward, a scoundrel and a traitor, and ought to be hung." Thus spake ex-Judge Green, of Danville, at the Democratic ratification meeting in that city, and this murderous sentiment was greeted by the audience with tremendous applause which lasted several minutes.

Convention Notes from the Bristol Courier.

There was too much speaking going last night. All the republicans think it was a regular love feast.

Browning is the handsomest man in the convention. Chairman Gleaves presided with wisdom, firmness and fairness.

The Courier's fair and impartial reports pleased all the delegates.

There were eight colored delegates—four of them from Tazewell county.

Somebody laid a large and very beautiful bouquet on the chairman's table.

Gleaves made a fine impression by his speech in accepting the temporary chairmanship.

Col. Campbell Slem, of Lee, is one of the finest men in the convention. He is universally popular.

Maj. Wood was surrounded by his friends after the adjournment and congratulated time and again.

Judge M. B. Wood says it is as fine a body of men as ever assembled in a congressional convention of either party.

McBroom, of Russell, has been in the republican ranks for many years. He is a sensible counsellor and forcible speaker.

Judge Phil. W. Strother has a fine head and tact, indicative of clear and powerful intellect and originality and force of character. Craig county was the only one in the district not represented. Republicanism in Craig (the home of our Cyclone Jim) is only a name.

A. M. Dickenson is the funny man of the convention. He is, moreover, quick at repartee, as some of the delegates have found to their sorrow.

In the course of a short talk in the noon session yesterday, Browning, of Tazewell, paid some very graceful compliments to Bristol and her citizens. Dave Bailey seems to be the wheel-horse of the Bristol delegation. He never talks unnecessarily but when he does say something it has good hard sense in it.

Maj. H. C. Wood, of the Scott delegation, is a gallant bachelor, and wanted the convention to meet at night so that the ladies could come out and enjoy the cool of the evening.

The reporters were well taken care of, being provided with tables and chairs just to the left of the chairman's table, where everything and everybody could be seen and heard with ease.

Several of the delegates said that they liked Bristol so well that they would like to stay here all the time. Bristol would gladly welcome them as citizens. (What a pity some of these splendid fellows are republicans!)

W. E. Williams, Marion; Judge McBroom, Russell; J. S. Browning, Tazewell; Samuel F. Hurt, Abingdon; District marshal John G. Watts, Tazewell; I. C. Fowler Abingdon; Maj. W. G. Repass, Wytheville; J. Wilder, D. F. Bailey, M. B. Wood, Bristol; Jno. Dailey, Tazewell; H. E. McCoy, G. W. Hammit, Stuart F. Lindsey, W. W. James, of Bristol, were among those who sat on the rostrum last night.

Why is it?
 Our Abingdon correspondent furnishes a hint which ought to give birth to new thoughts.

Saltville is to become a large manufactory, in which every man employed must be fed. Necessarily and logically our home farmers must furnish the supplies.

Pochohantas already calls daily on our merchants for eggs, butter and other products brought them from our home farmers. These are the children of Protection, which Mr. Cleveland for some strange reason, unable to understand or appreciate. The Democratic platform stubbornly denies the very results that are daily storing our people in the face. A Protection tariff fills our land with factories, opens our coal and iron mines, and peoples the land with consumers. Our farmers must feed them. Daily our people see in the broad light of day, that the overthrow of slavery fills our land with business and capital. Here come the steam locomotives, the gas plant, the electric light, the street car, the water hydrant—mighty hands, arms and eyes of the coming great city. The thirty years reign of a Protective tariff has brought to our doors glories theretofore undreamed of. Democracy for fifty years failed to bring these. To those of us here in 1862-5 there came to us a message "This day is born unto you a deliverer." Great Heavens! what a change, since then Protective Policy has breathed into it, by the Republican Party, the breath of life. Look on that picture behind 1860, and then look on this.

The Richmond Dispatch says: But as at present advised we know of no other banking-system as good as the one which our national government accidentally stumbled upon some twenty-five years ago, and which has raised our currency from the deplorable wild-cat condition in which it was at that time, to the highest place amongst the currencies of the world.

That word "stumbled," is alaisy "Our national Government," which did the stumbling means in this case the Republican party, which has had a faculty for handsome and happy stumbling. It stumbled on a restored union and on the abolition of free trade, in African Negro slave trade, and on a protective tariff system, and on the opening of the mineral South to mankind, and on a Free School System, and on the Homestead system in the west, and National aid to continental railway lines, and on specie payments, and on the blazing stacks of furnaces and factories in the Southern States, and on a complete method of getting along for 33 years without the National drawback of Democratic rule. March on Grand Old Party! For the sake of mankind continue to stumble!

Henry Clinton Wood, a Republican Nominee, published in the 26th issue of the 9th, Congressional District held at Beistol, Va., on the 10th of August, Maj. H. C. Wood, the Scott county was nominated as a candidate for congress, and we our pleasure in placing his name before the people of his district. He is true to the principals of his party and will be an excellent representative in congress. Wood is a zealous worker in the cause of the Union and through the campaign and victory on the 8th of November.

In 1857, or thereabouts, the farmer had to pay $1.25 for a common scythe. He can get a much better one now for seventy-five cents.

The American workman paid $1.25 for a pair of overalls in free trade times, thirty-years ago. He can now get a much better pair for sixty cents.

Speaking of the 100,000 Russian and Polish immigrants who have landed in this country in the last fiscal year, the New York Sun remarks that "at least three infectious or contagious diseases are prevalent in the regions from which they have come, and are yet coming." Typhus fever and smallpox have already been introduced in New York by them.

Exports of domestic merchandise for the fiscal year 1892 were $1,015,789,607. This is the first year they ever attained the sum of a billion dollars. This is a billion-dollar country.—Atlanta (Ga.) National.

Salt is selling at six cents less than the tariff duty, and yet they say the duty is added to the cost of the article! Ask your free trade neighbor to explain that.—Davenport (Iowa) Tribune.

A suit of ordinary woolen clothing in the free-trade times of 1857 cost thirty dollars. A better suit can now be bought for fifteen dollars.

The only radical cure for rheumatism is to eliminate from the blood the acid that causes the disease. This thoroughly effected by the preserving use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Persist until cured. The process may be slow, but the result is sure.

As an after-dinner pill, to strengthen the stomach, assist digestion, and correct any bilious tendencies, Ayer's Pills are considered the best. Being sugar-coated, they are as agreeable as any confection, and may be taken by the most delicate.

Washington County. [From our special correspondent.] ABINGDON, Aug. 30 '92.—The event of the week is the death of that veteran minister, editor and citizen Rev. Geo. R. Barr, at the age of 82 years and some months. He lived a useful, pious, industrious life and carried into his great age the possession of all his mental powers and a fair amount of physical vigor. He was for very many years the main-spring of the Abingdon Virginian. He was on his feet for 80 years, and he died regretted and honored by every one of the multitude who heard him preach and pray for a punned race.

County Court is still in session and our jail is full of petty malefactors.

Dr. W. F. Barr, another devotee to suffering humanity is quite sick.

I hear on the street the rumor that Hon. J. A. Buchanan has determined to remove to Marion. I am not able to say it is authentic and it hardly seems to me a plausible one.

The nomination of Maj. H. C. Wood for Congress is everywhere, in my hearing, regarded with favor. This is the sober and unanimous expression.

It is generally conceded that the Saltville property has been stocked at two and a half millions, and is to be transformed into a manufactory of soda, ash, &c. It is affirmed that 3,000 will be thus furnished with employment. This will give us a valuable home market. Republican Protection bears fruit.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, announced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tea-spoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Death of a Prominent Citizen of Abingdon.
 Rev. Geo. R. Barr, D. D., of the Methodist Protestant Church, died from infirmities of age, at his home in Abingdon last Saturday at 3.30 a. m. aged 83 years. Mr. Barr was one of the few of Abingdon's oldest citizens and was always useful in all enterprises in Abingdon. He was for many years one of the editors of the Abingdon Virginian; was a zealous worker for about 60 years and was buried with the honors of the new Constitution of Va., he was elected Treasurer of his county, but of late years he kept a book store. He died as he had lived a noble man and a true christian. He leaves a widow of his 2d marriage, and several sons and daughters of his first wife. A good man was Geo. R. Barr. Peace to his ashes.

The Gruber Family.
 On last Friday and Saturday nights. Many of our citizens witnessed the musical entertainment given by the Gruber Family in the Opera House. The whole family (9 in all) are well versed in vocal and instrumental music. Prof. Gruber is a musical prodigy, his wife and four daughters, all have soft clear and sweet voices. Little Josie, 4 years old, captured the audience each night with her sweet singing and charming manners, Misses Marie and Annie sing beautifully. Master Steve is a wonder to all who hear him. Miss Carmile performed upon the piano with remarkable skill to the delight of every one present. Mrs. Gruber has the voice of a Jennie Lynn and never fails to captivate her hearers, with her melodious singing.

A Point for You.
 In view of what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others, is it not reasonable to suppose that it will be of benefit to you? For Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all other diseases of the blood, for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sick headache, Loss of Appetite, That Tired Feeling, catarrh, Malaria, Rheumatism, Hood's Sarsaparilla is an unequalled remedy. Hood's Pills cure sick headache.

IN MEMORIAM.
 Alice Blankenbecker, the daughter of Ephraim and Sophia Buck, was born in Wythe Co., Va., Nov. 15th, 1861 and died at her home in Smyth Co., Va., Aug 6th 1892. Her little infant passed over the river of Death two weeks before her.

She united with the Lutheran church at Hawk's Chapel Wythe Co. Va., 17 years ago. Two years ago she moved her membership to St. James church, Smyth Co. Va., where she remained till she joined the triumphant church above.

She was married to D. J. Blankenbecker, Nov. 24, 1881 at her father's house by Rev. J. B. Greaver. She was the mother of five children. She leaves a kind husband and three children to mourn their loss. We commend them to the care of our merciful heavenly father, who cares for the orphan.

She was a good wife, a fond and loving mother. She gave evidence in her life that she was a child of God.

She said to me several times during her sickness that the Lord would do all things well. She was perfectly resigned to His will. We have no doubt but all is well with her soul.

Her remains were interred in the St. James cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. B. Greaver, assisted by W. N. Britton.

A FRIEND.

Nervousness is from dyspepsia. Take Simmons Liver Regulator and be cured.

Were men governed by reason and common-sense, stock raising would advance with wonderful strides, one of the first things to do, would be to exterminate about nine-tenths of the dogs, and thus promote sheep raising. But for the dog nuisance ten sheep might be raised, where only one is found. Dogs, whiskey and tobacco, what a curse they are.

If you are melancholy or down with the blues you need Simmons Liver Regulator.

Our Old Fire Company.
"That was a gay old company that we belonged to, Joe, away back in '98, when you and I ran with the machine." Do you remember that big fire in Hotel Row, one freezing night, when fifteen people were pulled out of their burning rooms and came down the ladder in their night-clothes; and how Dick Green brought down two 'kids' at once—one in arms, the other slung to his back? Poor 'Dick'! He got the catarrh dreadfully, from so much exposure, and suffered from it five years or more. We thought once he was going in consumption, sure. But, finally, he heard of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and tried it, and it cured him up as sound as a flint. I tell you Joe, that catarrh remedy is a great thing. It saved as good a man and as a brave a fireman as ever trod shoe leather."

with Abscess of Lungs, and physicians pronounced Incurable Consumptive. By using Dr. King's New Disc Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine every made."
Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio. says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at O. C. Sprinkle's Drug store.

The Dairy Swing Churn
The Churn of 1890.
MANUFACTURED BY
Curtice Bros.,
Louisville, Ky.

This is undoubtedly one of the best and most perfect Churns ever placed on the market. It does away with the tedious process of churning lightens the labor, and makes a far better grade of butter than by any other process.
Below we give a certificate signed by a number of the best and most substantial farmers of Smyth County. Read it.
After thoroughly testing the Dairy Swing Churn, we are fully convinced that it is very superior to any other, and have no hesitancy in recommending it to all our friends to perform to the letter everything that is claimed for it. It is easy to operate, easy to keep clean, and is sure to bring all the butter there is in the cream in from 8 to 15 minutes time.
