Kills Man; Shoots Boy.

It is Alleged the Trouble Started in the Barn Where W. R. Price Was Feeding the Cows Using a Pitchfork To Handle the Feed—St. Clair Alleges That He Retreated Some Forty or Fifty Feet From W. R.
Price, Who Followed From the Barn With a Pitchfork In His Hands, and the Shooting Occurred
When Price Attacked Him With the Pitchfork.

SHOOTING TAKES PLACE ON ST. CLAIR'S FARM AT AN EARLY HOUR YESTERDAY

A deplorable tragedy was enacted in West Wytheville yesterday morning about 6:30 o'clock when Mr. D.
A. St. Clair, a prominent business man, shot and instantly killed Mr.
W. R. Price and seriously wounded his son, Fred, a boy about fifteen years of age, who was shot through the head. It is also alleged that two shots were fired at a younger boy, both shots going wild.

From information obtainable it seems that the trouble grew out of some money matters existing between St. Clair and Price, the latter being a tenant on St. Clair's place and St. Clair had been trying to get Price to vacate his house, which Price had refused to do until a settlement had been made. It is alleged the trouble started in the barn where Price was feeding the cows and was using a pitchfork to handle the feed.
It is understood Mr. St. Clair alleges that he retreated and Price followed him with the fork in his hand and when forty of fifty feet from the barn Price attacked him and the shooting followed. Price was shot through the heart and died instantly, while Fred Price was shot through the head, the bullet lodging in the back of the head. There was only one eye witness, being Walter Price a boy about twelve years of age, beside the participants. It is alleged that St. Clair was knocked down and he shot while on the ground, that Fred Price was in the act of striking him with a milk stool while down when shot. The version of the affair given by the younger Price boy is alleged to be different from that above and that his father attempted to knock the pistol from St. Clair's hand when he saw he was going to shoot and that he fell against St. Clair knocking him down after being shot. Fred Price was rushed to a hospital in Abingdon on train 41 which was stopped here for that purpose. A report from the hospital this morning stated that his condition was unchanged and the authorities would not express an opinion as to whether there was any hope of his recovery.
Immediately after the shooting Mr.
St. Clair phoned the officers and surrendered and waived a preliminary hearing and was bailed in the sum of ten thousand dollars for his appearance at the January term of circuit court.

Mr. W. R. Price was fifty-two years of age and was a native of Wythe County. He is survived by his wife and nine children, three being by a former marriage. The time of the funeral has not been set, waiting to hear from his three older sons who are living in Nebraska. However it will be from Methodist church in Wytheville and the interment will be at Rural Retreat.—Wytheville Enterprise.

Will Close Friday.

The Marion public Schools will close Friday at 3:30 P. M., for the Christmas holidays, and will not resume work until Monday January 5th, at 9 A. M. This will give the students their only holiday before end of the session, but will mean only a loss of ten school days which will be made up at the end of the session.

The school officials of Marion are just in receipt of a notice from the State Board of Education, stating that the school records and reports have been examined by the Commissioner of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, which met in Tennessee, December 5, 6, and its work has been approved, thus placing this school as a member of this Association for the fifth consecutive year.

Dear Patron: This Means YOU:

The Year 1924 is about to close.
What have you done for the Editor? Have you sent him the months? If you have not, will you please to do so, for he needs every cent that is due him.

Now this is the way to do it:
Look at the date at the side of your name on the margin of your paper; that stands for the time you have paid to, and you will then know exactly what you are due for subscription. Send this to the Editor now, and if you have anything to be thankful for add $1.50 for a year's subscription in advance,

Marion Kiwanis Club Meet.

The Kiwanians held another one of their big meetings Tuesday night and had a fine program. Everything went off with a snap and the report of the Committees was made in record time. Of course some of the Committees could not make a special report, but even they reported as being active and promise early action upon several matters by the next meeting.

After the general meeting, President B. E. Copenhaver, turned the meeting over to Kiwanian C. Brown Cox, Chairman of the evening, who presented a program of music and recitations. The Junior Orchestra from Marion College played a few selections, and were followed by Miss Mildred Buck, a student of the college, who gave two recitations. Miss Martha Cox and Miss Margaret Sue Copenhaver then played two violin solos, being accompanied by Miss Elouise Kerrick, a member of the Music Faculty of the College.

These were followed by Messrs.
Eugene Warren, of Washington, D.
C., Philip Sonnenblick, of New York, and Dr. J. R. Beck, of Davis Clinic, of Marion. These gentlemen played and sang several selections of popular music and then played several of the Kiwanian songs. While the Kiwanian songs were being played all of the Kiwanians lost their usual dignity and broke out in such a volume of song that for a time it seemed that the building would be separated from its foundation. Mr. Warren, performed at the piano, Dr. Beck played the violin and Mr. Sonnenblick sang.
The music and recitation program furnished by the representatives from the college, and the music furnished by these gentlemen were the features of the evening.

One or two Kiwanians had some good speeches prepared but they were reserved for another meeting.
In addition to the program some new Committees were named for spreading Christmas cheer to the needy.
The men appointed on these committees were: C. C. Lincoln Sr., I.
E. Gordon and C. P. Blackwell. Each man was asked to act as a self appointed committee to see any sick members.

The next meeting is during the Christmas week and is being looked forward to by all Kiwanians.

LIGHTS AND SHADES

The gloomiest day hath gleams of light;

The darkest wave hath light foam near in.

And twinkle through the cloudiest night,

Some solitary star to cheer it.

The gloomiest soul is not all gloom;

The saddest heart is not all sadness;

And sweetly o'er the darkest doom,

There shines some lingering beam of gladness.

Despair is never quite despair;

Nor life, nor death the future closes;

And round the shadowy brow of care

Will hope and fancy twine their roses.

C. H. G. Sprinkle was born at Marion, Va., April 18, 1857 and passed away at his home in Belton, Mo., Wednesday, Nov. 26 at 3:30 a. m.
His father was Sylvester D. Sprinkle, his mother Margaret Killinger.

He came to Belton in the fall of 1879 and worked at the carpenter's trade till 1891 when he established the furniture and under-taking business.

C. H. G. Sprinkle and Marietta
Stoker were married at Rich Hill, Mo., Oct. 26, 1885, and two daughters, Hallie and Oneita blessed this union. He united with the M. E.
Church South shortly after his marriage, during the pastorate of Rev.

John C. Given.

During his three months serious illness with typhoid fever he manifested remarkable patience and put forth every effort to do the things necessary for his recovery because of the solicitations of his loved ones.

It will be a desolate hearth without husband and father. How much will he be missed in the home? His kindly voice, his accustomed place at the table and his usual corner at the fireside, together with many personalities that meant so much to his own. But it is a comfort to have heard again and again from Charles'
own lips, "I am not afraid to die"
and to see "the stars shine through your cypress trees."

husband and an indulgent parent.
He was an honest and upright business man. For years he had been called into homes of sorrow and these bear testimony to his loving kindness. Any call to help the unfortunate appealed to him and in the aims that he did, there was no sound of the trumpet before him. He was a kind and thoughtful brother and a loyal friend. How much all will miss him from the old haunts, and that hearty laugh so characteristic of him.

The large audience at the funeral and the beautiful flowers spoke clearly of the esteem in which Belton and surrounding country held him.

He is survived by his wife, Marietta Sprinkle, and two daughters, Miss Hallie and Mrs. Oneita Nethaway, a son-in-law, E. D. Nethaway and two grandchildren, Chas. and Virgina, three brothers, Thos, Melvin Sprinkle of Kansas City, Arch, and

S. D. Sprinkle of Belton. Two nephews, Paul C. Sprinkle of Kansas City, and A. D. Sprinkle of Littleton, Colo., a niece, Mrs. Jessie Ervin of Oil Hill Kansas; three cousins, Mrs. Jane Aker who has known him since childhood.
C. F. Killinger, and Mrs. Ellen Killinger.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Alonzo Patison of Odessa, assisted by Bro. Hargrove, at the M.
E. Church, South, Nov. 28, at 1:30
p. m.

C. H. G. Sprinkle held membership in the following lodges of Belton: Lodge No. 450, A. F. A. M., I.
O. O. F., M. W. A., W. O. W., O.
E. S., and Rebecca.

Burial services were completed at the cemetery by the Masons.—Belton

FAULTY NUTRITION

Many of the ailments of grown people may be traced to faulty nutrition. Well-fed children or adults withstand weakness better than those who are indifferently nourished.

Scott's Emulsion

supplies the weakened child or adult with food-factors that other foods often fail to furnish in needful volume.

Not a great deal of Scott's Emulsion is needed—but a little regularly often means restored vigor and strength to those who are rundown in vitality or who are weak.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

VIRGINIA:—In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Smyth County, the 6th day of December, 1924:

One Ford Car, Engine No. 8598683

Whereas, Charles H. Funk, Commonwealth's attorney of Smyth County, has filed an information in the office aforesaid, showing the seizure of one Ford Touring Car, Engine No. 8598683, Virginia License No. 199, 159, in the possession of Reece Jackson, while being used for the unlawful transporting of ardent spirits, and asked that the same be condemned and sold and the proceeds disposed of according to law.

Now, therefore, the said Reece Jackson and all persons concerned in interest, are hereby notified to appear before the Judge of the Circuit Court of Smyth County, on the first day of January, 1925, term thereof, (it being the 5th day of January, 1925,) to show cause, if any they can, why said automobile should not be condemned and sold to enforce said forfeiture.

Given under my hand this December 6th, 1924.

LOOKING AFTER OUR COUNTRY FRIENDS

A good friend of Marion was in our office Saturday and was registering a vigorous complaint of the way the town is treating the country people in not giving them any place in which to tie their teams when they come to town. He said that "Jockey Alley" has got so high-toned that the country people can no longer tie their teams there when they come to town to trade. They could not tie on Main Street, and in fact that there was no place to tie, and the only thing to do was to tie out in the country and walk to town. He said that all the country people did not own autos, some lived on dirt roads that compelled them to use the horse and wagon to get out, and that they would trade in some place that looked like it wanted them to come.

How about it good people of Marion, did our friend have good grounds for his complaint? If so let's give him a nice tie rack some where before he comes to town again.

WHAT THE MARION PAPERS CAN DO

Some time ago we received a letter from a gentleman living in Missouri now but who had relatives in Southwest Virginia, but he did not know who they were or where to find them. So he wrote us a letter making inquiries with regard to his relatives which he asked us to publish, which we did. On the 5th of December we received a letter from the gentlemen, in which he says:

"I wish to thank you very much for the service you rendered me, which produced IMMEDIATE RESULTS," etc.

How many people in the county of Smyth in the business need the help of publicity which the Marion papers would give them? If your business is dull it is because you are not using the opportunities you have.

The Smile of a Friend.

By O. Lawrence Hawthorne
Oh, how many hearts are longing
For a cordial word of praise,
For a smile of recognition
That will cheer their dreary days!
Everywhere are men whose labors
Earn for them our friendliness
And that frank appreciation
We should readily express.

Life is brief and time is fleeting;
Always there is urgent need
For fraternity and kindness,
Yet we pay so little heed
To the problems of our fellows;
Men must have encouragement
And full credit for their efforts
Or they cannot feel content.

Let's resolve to greet our neighbors
With a friendly word each day;
Let's be more than merely civil
As we rush along life's way;
Each of us should scatter sunshine
That will gladden every mile,
For the souls of men are yearning
For the comfort of a smile.

IMPORTANT FARM CROPS OF COUNTRY ARE VALUED AT $9,479,902,000 THIS YEAR BY DEPARTMENT AGRICULTURE

Washington, Dec. 16.—The important farm crops of the country this year were valued at $9,479,902,000 today by the department of agriculture in its December estimates based on prices paid to farmers December 1. Revised estimates placed the value of last year's crops at $8,726,889,000 and those of 1922 at $7,816,020,000.

The area of these crops aggregated 355,210,400 acres compared with 355,594,730 acres last year and 353,635,600 acres in 1922.

This year's corn crop was valued at $2,405,468,000 and production was estimated at 2,436,513,000 bushels.

The value and production of other important crops included:

All wheat $3,186,596,000; production 872,673,000 bushels. Cotton $1,497,225,000; production 18,158,000 bales. Oats: $737,495,000 and 1,541,900,000 bushels. White potatoes $294,861,000 and 454,734,000 bushels. Sweet potatoes $92,290,000 and 71,861,000 bushels. All hay $1,467,648,000 and 112,450,000 tons. Tobacco $256,346,000 and 1,242,632,000 pounds. Clover seed $18,362,000 and 977,000 bushels. Peanuts $37,981,000 and 616,200,000 pounds. Beans $49,409,000 and 18,826,000 bushels. Cow peas $38,874,000 and 14,352,000 bushels. Cabbage $15,705,000 and 973,000 tons. Canteloupes $7,230,000 and 13,789,000 crates. Lettuce $16,553,000 and 13,653,000 crates. Onions $16,751,000, and 17,627,000 bushels. Green peas $16,771,000 and 259,200 tons. Tomatoes $54,641,000 and 1,718,900 tons. Water melons $3,503,000 and 49,765 cars. Apples (total) $212,193,000 and 179,443,000 bushels. Apples (commercial) $105,259,000 and 28,701,000 barrels. Peaches $65,914,000 and 51,679,000 bushels. Pears $25,287,000 and 17,961,000 bushels. Grapes $78,705,000 and 1,777,000 tons.

Crops Satisfactory

Washington, Dec. 16.—This year's harvest of important farm crops, the highest priced in five years though not the greatest in volume of products, was valued at $9,479,902,000 today by the Department of Justice.

Better prices than last year placed the value $758,013,000 higher than last year, when the total, as revised, was $8,726,889,000 and $1,668,882,000 higher than in 1922 when they aggregated $7,816,020,000.

The combined acreage of the principal farm crops was smaller this year than last, there having been a total of 255,210,400 acres as compared with 355,594,730 in 1922.

Both the spring and winter wheat crops were extremely satisfactory but corn had an unfavorable season. Cotton, planted late, was affected by drought to some extent, but a fair crop was produced. A large crop of potatoes on a smaller acreage than in recent years resulted from unusually favorable weather.

Corn maintained its rank as king of crops, and although production of 800,000,000 bushels less than last year its value was $188,000,000 more than the 1922 crop.

OBITUARY

William Alexander White son of Cornelius and Rebecca White, was born in Scott County, August 9th, 1833 and died April 20, 1924.

When a boy his parents moved to Groseclose. When at an early age, he joined the Pleasant Hill Lutheran church and remained a faithful member until death.

He married Nannie M. Buchanan in 1861. To this union was born five children. His wife and four children preceded him to the grave.

In 1913 he was united in marriage to Viola Sprinkle. In 1922 they moved to Marion.

He was a member of three orders, Juniors, Odd Fellows and Encampment.

He was a devoted husband and kind father. He was a good citizen, his ruling theme was, "To attend his own business." Someone said "Everybody loved uncle Will." Before his death he said, "I am ready to die." What a worthy statement. Yea what a heavenly declaration. His christian character, was irreproachable. May we all, relatives, neighbors and friends follow this good man's example, as he followed Christ, that we too, may have an abundant entrance into that mansion that Jesus has gone to prepare for the good. "Where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest."

Spending Charity's Millions 10,000 Miles Away From Home Is Task Of Finance Wizard

HANDLING collections and making disbursements which last year exceeded $8,000,000 at a hundred scattered points, some of them ten thousand miles apart, in such a fashion that there can be no waste or loss, is the task that faces Edward C. Miller, Comptroller of the Near East Relief, one of America's largest purely philanthropic enterprises.

The size of the job and its numerous difficulties is illustrated by the fact that money and supplies frequently must be transported from places as far distant as Los Angeles, California, to Tabriz in Persia, with large sections of the intervening regions infested with bandits.

Despite the hazard of brigandage only one large loss has been sustained in the transfer in recent years. Bandits in 1922 held up the American Director General in Armenia and made a haul of $25,000. Practically all of this was later recovered and the bandits executed by the Armenian Government.

"We are required to keep a careful watch over our funds and to account for every cent to the United States Congress, under whose charter we operate," declares Mr. Miller.

"Auditors from New York Headquarters are constantly going over the books of collection offices throughout the country. A firm of certified public accountants inspect our books at National Headquarters regularly. Abroad the situation is more difficult because of the distances and transportation problems involved. But the accounts of each orphanage and outlying stations are audited at least once each year by accountants from a British firm in Egypt.

"Aside from insuring that all funds entrusted to our care by the American public for relief work are spent properly, our greatest responsibility is to see that they are spent economically. Charity and philanthropy to be efficient must be run in a business-like manner. And they must be run on a lower overhead cost than business, because no profits are made to balance expenditures.

"It is truly remarkable what American business efficiency has accomplished in this connection. Last year I visited every relief station overseas, some of them miles from the beaten track of trade and tourist travel. Yet orders that had been issued from headquarters in New York were being as effectively and as intelligently carried out as they could have been were they located in Brooklyn or Jersey City. Every cent contributed for the orphans went to the orphans.

"In this connection the following report of Russell and Company, chartered accountants of Cairo, is interesting:

"We maintain a running audit of the books and accounts of the foreign offices of Near East Relief, and we have found the operations to be correctly stated and sufficiently vouched in accordance with the explanations given to us and as shown by the books, and the funds to have been administered in accordance with the financial advice received from New York. Further, the funds appear to us to have been administered efficiently and economically."

MAC FARREN COMPANY.

The second number of the Monday Afternoon Music Club concert course, The Mac Farren Company, appeared in Marion Wednesday evening, December 10, before a large and appreciative audience. The musicians proved to be of high order, while their best work, perhaps, was in ensemble, the solos were well done.

Mr. Mac Farren displayed exceptional skill at the piano. His accompaniments were sympathetically rendered, most of them being played from memory. He gave a brilliant rendition of the Liszt E major Polonaise.

The baritone possessed a pleasing voice, and skillful interpretation.

The violinist's selections were much enjoyed, and the cellist displayed unusual warmth and richness of tone.

Altogether, the concert was pronounced one of the most enjoyable ever given in Marion.

The Music Club expect to present several other attractions during the winter and early spring. Announcements will be made at a later date.

Considers The Region Most Desirable.

Work Proposes That It Be Named Shenandoah National Park.

CHOICE IS BASED ON COMMITTEE REPORT

Region Is Within Day's Travel Of More Than 40,000,000 Population.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Selection of the Blue Ridge of Virginia as the site for the first great national park of the East was announced today by Secretary Work, of the Interior Department, who proposed that it be established and named the Shenandoah National Park. The region was declared the most desirable because of its scenic, historic and recreational qualities and because it is within a day's travel of more than 40,000,000 population.

The choice was based on a report to the Secretary from the Southern Appalachian National Park committee, headed by Representative H. W. Temple, of Pennsylvania, which during the past eight months has made an extensive tour of inspection of many proposed sites. White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Mammoth Cave, Ky., were among the sites urged for selection.

Accessibility Wins
While the Great Smoky Mountains of Tennessee, North Carolina, and Virginia were described as superior to the Blue Ridge Mountains in altitude and some other features, the latter's accessibility to population centers won the committee's favor. Hope was expressed by the committee that the Shenandoah Park will be established and that its success will encourage congress to create a second park in the Smoky Mountains, which lie some 300 miles distant southwest.

Although no effort was made to estimate the cost of acquiring the Blue Ridge area, which embraces 700 square miles in eight counties between Front Royal and Waynesboro, the committee expressed a belief that with constructive co-operation between Virginia land owners and the pricing of lands at reasonable prices and probably some donations might be expected. A suggestion was advanced that should Congress approve the site, a commission be appointed to handle the purchase, solicit contributions and arrange necessary condemnation proceedings.

Primeval forests, picturesque canyons and gorges and an animal refuge of national prominence are features of the selected location. The mountains overlook valleys where battles of the revolutionary and Civil wars were fought and where several presidents were born. It is traversed by two highways and the committee pointed out the possibility of constructing a sky-line drive commanding a view of Piedmont plain and stretching to Washington.

There are seventeen national parks in the west and Secretary Work calling attention to the need for a great outdoor recreation ground in the East appointed the committee and requested the site chosen should cover not less than 500 square miles and contain scenery typical of the region.

Committee Impressed
"The committee has been impressed with the amount of interest manifested in all sections of the east in the proposed park," its report stated, "and this interest has resulted in numerous requests that the committee inspect various areas. Many of these requests pertain to localities that have abundant scenic features, but which are not of sufficient size to warrant their being considered for a national park."

"We found many areas which could well be chosen, but the committee was charged with the responsibility of selecting the best, all things considered. Of these several possible sites the great Smoky Mountains easily stand first because of the height of the mountains, depth of the valleys, ruggedness of the area and the unexampled variety of trees, shrubs and plants. The great Smokies have some handicaps which will make the development of them into a historical park a matter of delay; their very ruggedness and height make road and other park development a serious undertaking as to time and expense."

"It will surprise the American people to learn that a national park such as the suggested Shenandoah Park, with fine scenic and recreational qualities can be found within a three-hour ride of our National capital and within a day's ride of forty million of our inhabitants. It has many canyons and gorges with beautiful cascading streams. The greatest single feature, however, is a possible sky-line drive along the mountain top following a continuous ridge and looking down westerly on the Shenandoah Valley from 2500 to 3500 feet below, and also commanding a view of the Piedmont plain stretching easterly to the Washington monument which landmark of our national capital may be seen on a clear day. Few scenic drives in the world could surpass it." Introduces Bill.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Establishment of a national park called the Shenandoah National Park in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia would be authorized under a bill introduced today by Representative Temple Republican Pennsylvania. The bill would authorize the secretary of the Interior to determine the exact boundaries of the park, specifying that this must lie east of the south fork of the Shenandoah river and between Front Royal on the North and Waynesboro on the south. A committee of five members and an appropriation of $10,000 would be authorized to carry out the act.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF JOHN ROBERT WILLIAMS.

John Robert Williams was born June 27, 1924, and died November 8, 1924, being 4 months and 12 days old. He was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Williams, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Sprinkle Williams and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Suits, all of Marion. He was known by all who knew him as "Bobbie." He leaves a mother and father and one brother, Herman Max. He was laid to rest in Round Hill Cemetery. The flower girls were: Virginia Powell, Louise Kirby and Nettie Debord. The pall bearers were: Ancil Kirby, Vance Barnett, Willis Newman and Roy Baldwin. The funeral services was held at the home of his grand-parents Mr. and Mrs. Sprinkle Williams by Dr. J. R. Edwards.

The little crib is empty now,
The little clothes laid by;
A mother's hope a father's joy,
In death's cold arms do lie,
O little "Bobbie," to thy home
On yonder blissful shore;
We miss thee here but soon will come
Where thou has gone before.
HIS AUNT.
"Thou hast gone to yonder city
Where no mortal feet have trod;
Thou hast gone to be with Jesus.
In the city of our God.

Thou hast gone to yonder city
Gone, eternal joys to share;
But sometimes at Heaven's portal
Look for us, we'll meet thee there.

Thou hast gone to yonder city
Gone, the ransomed hosts to swell
We shall meet thee in the morning.
Until then, we say farewell.
A FRIEND.
