ONE OF ARIZONA'S WONDERS.

A BARREL SHAPED ROCK 200 FEET HIGH WHICH CAN BE SEEN MILES AWAY. From the San Francisco Call.

For many years Heidelberg University has had the honor of owing the largest barrel, or "tun," as they call it, in the world. They have had the honor, although it does not really belong to them, for Arizona has a barrel that makes theirs fade into insignificance.

The barrel is one of those peculiar rock formations and is about 200 feet high, and the top of it is at least 2,000 feet above the valley. It can be seen for miles before the traveler gets to it, and its appearance is most deceiving. It requires no effort of the imagination to see the large utensil of Bacchus perched on its peak with a glass under a faucet as if ready to be filled.

ARE THESE LOCUSTS FROM CHINA?

PETER FRANKLIN RETURNS AFTER AN ABSENCE OF FIFTEEN YEARS.

About fifteen years ago Peter Franklin, brother of the late Col. Jas. Franklin and Owen Franklin, of this county, mysteriously disappeared between this place and Bristol.

Last week Mr. Franklin returned and is now among relatives in this county. This relieves three honorable citizens from suspicion, and proves that the innocent may sometimes suffer. Slanderous tongues will wag.—Gate City Gazette.

A FRAGMENT OF THE MOON.

From the St. Louis Republic.

A FUNNY MURDER CASE.

The only funny murder case that we ever heard of happened out in Texas.

In James county the dead body of a man was found, and in its badly decomposed state it resembled Mike Ferry, who had been missing some time. Peter Meggs was arrested and promptly confessed that he had murdered Ferry.

The Grimes county people are puzzled and the judge and the lawyers are mad. They do not know whether to turn Meggs out or try him again for the murder of the unknown man.

STANFORD'S SUCCESSOR.

EX-SENATOR FELTON OR M. H. DE-YOUNG LIKELY TO BE APPOINTED. WASHINGTON, June 25.—The death of Senator Stanford will make no change for the present in the political status of the senate.

The fight for the senatorship will occur before the people next year, when a new legislature will be chosen. The prevalent opinion here is that ex-Senator Felton will be appointed.

Editor DeYoung, of the San Francisco Chronicle, is mentioned as having a strong chance for the appointment. He has a strong and compact following.

THE UNCLEAN THING.
 From the Virginia Sun.

"Tell you, gentlemen, this thing has to stop. Cheating at elections is demoralizing our whole people. Honor, which was once regarded as a man's dearest possession, is now openly ridiculed as old-fashioned and squeamish. We are deteriorating as a people, and the principal cause of our deterioration is this idiotic nonsense about 'preserving white civilization' by cheating. You can't cheat a man out of his vote, whether he be white or colored, without hurting yourself a great deal more than you hurt him. Our boys are growing up to look upon cheating as smartness, and we, their fathers, are their teachers. Gentlemen, we can not do evil that good may come. Evil always produces evil, and we are but sowing the wind to reap the whirlwind."

Thus spoke a prominent Democrat in the company of his friends, and all honor him for it. He but voices the sentiment which to-day is troubling thousands of honest Virginia hearts and there will be no peace for their consciences until they cast out the unclean thing.

Only the other day in Prince George county at Rives' precinct the Populists polled 134 votes, and the Democratic judges only allowed them 40. A few days later 109 white men tramped through the mud and rain and swore before a magistrate that they had voted the Populist ticket. Such frauds sink to Heaven, and are an everlasting disgrace to the community which permits them.

It is no excuse to say that these indignities are "practicable" to "preserve white civilization." In the first place it was white men who were robbed of their votes, and white men who were defrauded out of the offices to which they were elected. In the second place, the men who are the beneficiaries of the fraud are a disgrace to any civilization—a set of low-lived, whiskey-guzzling bandits who ought to be in the penitentiary.

Another instance comes from the civilized City of Norfolk. In the Presidential election, in the second precinct of the first ward of that city the returns show only 2 Prohibition votes, and yet 23 substantial citizens appear before a notary and swore that they voted for Bidwell. Here are 20 votes proved to have been thrown—the votes of men who had no hope for the success of their party, but who expected to be allowed the small consolation of having their votes counted in behalf of a principal to which they are devoted. How did those few Prohibition votes threaten "white civilization?" They threatened the ruin power, and we have yet to learn that drunkenness is a necessary concomitant of "white civilization."

The fact is, cheating at elections was first winked at because it was done to keep "the nigger" down, and the very people who winked at it are now suffering the evil consequences of their dalliances with dishonesty. The whole election machinery of the State is now in the hands of a set of unscrupulous rascals who do not stop at anything to carry out their selfish designs. It matters not what the people want or who is their choice for office, under the present regime an election records nothing but the wishes of a few score politicians, whose sole aim in life is to fatten on the public crib and take care of their friends. Meanwhile the country goes from bad to worse, and their can be no hope for the future until this rule of ruffianism is overthrown.

Here is the great issue for the people of Virginia for the next election—purification of the ballot. Virginia never can prosper until her skirts are cleansed from the reeking corruption which now pollutes her whole political being. Let men of all parties—Populists, Prohibitionists, Democrats and Republicans—unite in one mighty effort to rescue our forlorn State from the horror of darkness which is engulfing her.

Uncle Sam's weather regulators have handled their summer weather admirably so far. They have given out their high temperatures in broken doses, with cool spells and gentle zephyrs intervening.

The tightness in money matters throughout the country has not abated. Numerous crashes are the order of the day.

FINANCIAL DEPRESSION.

A Democratic Paper Charges it to the Administration.

ATLANTA, June 25.—The Atlanta Constitution, the leading Democratic paper in Georgia, is in a state of nervousness. It calls loudly upon the administration to do something. Referring to the existing financial depression it says in its editorial columns to-day:

"What, then, is responsible for this state of affairs? The answer is found in the general uncertainty as to the policy of the administration. For the first time in thirty-two years the Democrats have control of all branches of the government. What are they going to do? What will be done with the currency and the tariff? These questions are distracting the public mind, and the situation will grow worse if there is no prospect for an extra session of congress before the middle of September. All this trouble would have been averted if an extra session of congress had been called forthly after Mr. Cleveland's inauguration. Even now, things would improve if a call should issue for congress to meet in July."

Until congress meets and gets to work the policy of the administration in regard to the currency and the tariff is shrouded in doubt and mystery. Congress will shape that policy whatever it may be, and everything will remain at a standstill until something definite is known. This is a fair and impartial statement of the facts of the case. Mr. Cleveland had it in his power to prevent the business disasters of the past four months by calling an extra session, and he still has it in his power to relieve the situation of its worst features by calling the session at the earliest practicable day.

But suppose the president disregards the signs of the times and heeds no friendly counsel? Suppose he adheres to his original determination to put off the session until September? Then the work of wreck and ruin will have to go on for the next sixty or seventy-five days. The people will be merciless in their judgment, and they will place the responsibility for their misfortunes on the Democratic party, where it does not belong, because it is overwhelmingly in favor of an immediate extra session.

TERRY MONUMENT UNVEILED.
 On last Saturday at 2:30 p. m. the ceremonies of the unveiling of the monument erected to the memory of Past Grand Master Wm. Terry were performed by the Grand Lodge of A. F. and A. Masons at Wytheville. The Grand Lodge officers acting on this occasion were: Most Wor. W. H. Pleasant, grand master; G. J. Holbrook, deputy grand master pro tem; R. Wor. Geo. W. Wright, grand senior warden, pro tem; Wor. R. L. Poage, grand junior warden, pro tem; Wor. W. T. Mosby, grand secretary, pro tem; Wor. J. B. Barrett, jr., grand senior deacon, pro tem; Wor. R. T. W. Duke, grand junior deacon, pro tem; Wor. J. P. Preston, grand tiler, pro tem. Wytheville lodge No. 82, Mt. Airy lodge No. 226, Grayson lodge No. 217 and various members of other lodges were present. The meeting was held in Sexton's hall and was opened in ample form by the grand master, Maj. W. C. Sanders was appointed grand marshal and E. McG. Phelps assistant. The procession was formed in front of the hall, headed by the Wytheville band, and marched to East End cemetery where the remains of Gen. Terry repose. The Grand officers, the band, the family of the deceased and the speaker for the occasion occupied a stand erected for this purpose, and the lodges were formed in a square around the monument, after being thus arranged the ceremonies were begun and conducted in a beautiful manner. The veil was drawn from the shaft by little Lizzie, the 4-year old daughter of Mayor Wm. Terry. The monument is a handsome granite shaft resting upon two large bases and was furnished by the Wytheville Marble and Granite Co. The workmanship is executed in a beautiful style and reflects great credit upon the architect, Mr. F. B. Greenawald. On the face of the monument, near the top is the emblem of the Masonic order, Keystone; a little below that is the square and compass, then the inscription:

WILLIAM TERRY,
 Born Aug 14, 1824,
 Died Sept. 5, 1888.
 Erected by Wytheville Fraternal Lodge No. 82, A. F. & A. M., 1893.

Then on the base the simple word, TERRY.

The speaker for the occasion was Capt. Robt. Crockett, of Wytheville. His address was a masterpiece of appropriate oratory and was listened to with earnest and respectful attention. All spoke in praise of Mr. Crockett's address. After the conclusion Capt. Crockett's speech the band played a beautiful piece and the benediction was pronounced. The Masons were then re-formed in line for their return to the hall where the Grand Lodge was closed. It was truly a grand day for Wytheville.

DEATH OF MRS. W. T. DICKEY.—It was with mingled feelings of pain and surprise that our community learned of the death of Mrs. W. T. Dickey, which occurred at her late home in this place Wednesday morning at 10:25 o'clock, after an illness of four or five days. The deceased was the wife of our popular sergeant and collector, W. T. Dickey. Her age was about 27 years. She was a lady of rare accomplishments of head and heart, and her vacant chair will not be easily filled in the social circle, and certainly not in the desolated home where a grief-stricken husband and three little children will listen in vain for the familiar voice, and for the sound of the footsteps that will never be heard. Mrs. Dickey was born, raised and married in Alabama, in which state her mother now resides. One of her sisters, Miss Mitche Dunbar, has been here for several months on a visit. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church, and was attended by an immense throng of sympathizing relatives and friends. The scene at the church and grave was a touching and impressive one that affected strongly all hearts and the general sympathy for the grief-stricken family found expression in many thoughtful and unobtrusive ways, especially in floral offerings of which there was a vast number. The services were conducted by Rev. F. T. McFaden, assisted by Rev. Dr. Kenedy. The interment took place in Roundhill cemetery. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: H. B. Haller, Jno. W. Richardson, F. H. Cowden, W. G. Dunlap, Jno. R. Venable, E. J. Haller, D. C. Miller and J. H. Francis.

A BEAUTIFUL MONUMENT—All who visit the cemetery at Mt. Carmel will notice and admire the beautiful monument erected in the section in which the remains of Wm. J. Allen repose. The circumstances relative to his death were very sad indeed, he having lost his life by an accident on the S. A. & O. Railroad last February, and after his death his remains were brought to Mt. Carmel from his home in Bristol and buried with the honors of Masonry. Mr. Allen was born, raised and married near Mt. Carmel, and his parents are now lying there. Mrs. Allen, widow of the deceased, procured the monument in Knoxville, Tenn., from the Southland Monumental Works, 558-510 Holston street, owned and managed by Brady & Durkee. This beautiful monument has two bases; the first, or ground base, is made of Georgia limestone, and the second base is made of Italian marble. On the face of the second base is the name Allen, and on the back is a railroad engine with the tender attached. The shaft is of the finest Italian marble, five feet high from the second base, upon which it stands, and 16 inches square all the way to the top and is (as represented) covered with drapery, and on each corner is a cord and tassel hanging down. On the covering is a bible, closed, and upon the bible there is a vase entwined with a wreath of flowers, and the back of the vase is covered with drapery. On the face of the shaft is an open bible supported by a hand, and on top of the book there is a rose twig with a rose in full bloom, and above is an emblem of Odd Fellowship (the 3 links) and on the back and sides are the emblems of the other three orders of which he was a member, viz: the Masonic order, the Knights of Honor and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. The grave is in the right hand corner of the section and is cribbed on the sides and foot with marble. At the head there are two square bases upon which rests a lovely carved head piece, the face of which is reclining and upon which is a scroll, and on the scroll is an open bible with the dates of birth and death carved in neat style. This is one of the prettiest monuments in Southwest Va. and is admired by all who have seen it. Around the square is a neat and substantial iron fence; Mr. Durkee, who put up the monument, spent two days at it. He spoke in the highest terms of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Allen, whilst at their residence, and said he would always remember their kindness to him.

A HUSTLER.
 He Was Nine Years Old and Had Been in Business Five Years.
 The boy was not more than two and one-half feet high; but he was intelligent and energetic, and he hawked his newspapers with a zeal that would have been creditable to a high-proof drummer. He was not unkindly of his dignity, and when one broad stranger-purchaser accompanied him (leader of a newspaper) with a frivoloous, chaffing remark, the little fellow embarrased him with a sharp glance from two sparkling black eyes, remarking the while: "Here is your change, sir. I have no time for fooling."
 "Keep the change," said the purchaser, dropping the five-cent and assuming a serious air. "Will you tell me how long you have been selling papers?"
 "I have been in the newspaper business three years," replied the diminutive merchant somewhat coldly.
 "Three years!" exclaimed the man with unfeigned surprise. "Why, my lad, you do not look big enough to carry a bundle of papers."
 "Notwithstanding," said the little fellow, with unfeigned dignity, "I have been in this business for three years, and for two years before I sold papers I was in the clothing business."
 "Is it possible?" commented the questioner, with increased surprise. "See here, my little man, how old are you?"
 "Nine years old," calmly responded the little fellow. "I had to get out and hustle to help support the family when I was four years old. I belong to a family who waste no time."
 The lad spoke the truth. He was born in East Broadway and went to work in his father's clothing store when but four years old as a cash boy. And there are many more like him in this large and progressive town.—N. Y. Times.

An Anxious Wife.
 "My dear, now pray don't get into that boat!"
 "Why not, darling?"
 "It looks so very dangerous, and you are so awkward; suppose you were to drown, whatever would become of me?"
 "Do be quiet, I know how to take care of myself."
 "Well, if you persist, get into the boat, but hadn't you better leave your watch and chain?"—Strasburger Bote.

 "And you will never forgive me, Penelope?" said Parson after the kiss.
 "Never," said Penelope.

The Best Blood Purifier.
 A young A. Klags, 810 St. Charles street, Baltimore, Md., writes: "From my youth I suffered from a poisonous taint in my blood. My face and body was continually affected with eruptions and sores. I am now 42 years of age and had been treated both in Germany and America, but no remedy overcame the trouble until I used Botanic Blood Balm. My skin is clear, smooth and healthy, and I consider the poisonous matter permanently driven from my blood. I endorse it as the best blood remedy."

Notice of Important Land Sale.

In pursuance of deeds of trust executed to me by Sarah Cullop and G. W. Allison, trustee, viz: 1st deed of trust executed to F. W. Leonard, trustee, to secure to A. M. Dickenson a debt of $396.39 with interest thereon from the 28th day of November, 1890, and recorded in Deed Book No. 20, page 176; also another deed of trust executed on the 2nd day of June, 1892, to F. W. Leonard, trustee, to secure to A. M. Dickenson and F. S. Blair the sum of $206.07 with interest from 2nd day of June, 1892, which is recorded in Smyth county clerk's office in Deed Book No. 20, page 560; also deed of trust executed to A. M. Dickenson, trustee, on the 13th day of July, 1892, to secure to Blair & Blair the sum of $600.00 with interest from 13th July, 1892, which is recorded in Smyth county clerk's office, Deed Book No. 21, page 67,—we shall on Monday, the 17th Day of July, 1893, (being court day) proceed to expose to sale before the front door of Smyth court house, at public outcry, for cash in hand sufficient to pay the cost of executing these deeds of trust and the debts therein secured, with accrued interest, including commissions provided for in the said deeds, all that valuable tract or parcel of land, lying and being on the north and east side of Middle Fork of Holston river, upon which the late Adam Cullop lived, and upon which the said Sarah Cullop now resides, adjoining the lands of W. M. Copenhaver and others. But the first debt herein secured, to A. M. Dickenson of $396.39 is subject to a credit of $227.50 as of date the 21st of November, 1892, being amount of sale of the land on the south and west of Middle Fork of Holston river adjoining the lands of Hiram Fox, H. B. Haller, James Fox and others, after deducting cost of sale and commissions on the same.

 This last described land lying south and west of the Middle Fork of Holston River, having heretofore been sold, in pursuance of the deed of trust, and in pursuance of the directions of Sarah Cullop. As before stated the land will be sold for cash, and the terms of the sale must be complied with on the day of sale.
 The title to this land is good and unquestioned, but selling as trustees we will convey with terms of special warranty.
 F. W. LEONARD, Trustee.
