New Income Law Now in Effect.

Washington, Sept. 29.—According to estimates completed Saturday by treasury experts, 425,000 American citizens must keep such accurate accounts of their incomes this year that they will be able to report to the income tax collector next spring exactly how much they owe the government under the new income tax law.

So far as the taxable American is concerned, the income law now virtually is in force against him. While under the tariff bill, the first returns do not have to be made to the internal revenue collectors before March 1, 1914, when the returns are made they will cover the income of citizens from March 1, 1913, to December 31.

Every single person (citizen or foreign resident) whose annual income exceeds $3,000, and every married person with an income of more than $4,000 will have to report receipts in detail to government agents March 1, of each year. The estimate completed Saturday indicates that the income tax will produce $82,298,000. To this will be added the $35,000,000 or more produced by the present corporation tax; which continued as a part of the law.

Holds No Election.

Amherst, Va., Sept. 27.—No town election was held at Amherst this week, as had been proposed. The purpose of this election was to vote on a $10,000 bond issue, the proceeds from which were to be used for securing a lighting system and water supply for the town. All arrangements had been made and the judges had been appointed, but when to open the polls, the poll books could not be found. It is not known now when the election will be held.

Cattle From Our County.

The big cattle of Smyth county are beginning to move now to the Eastern markets. The Keller brothers are handling the bulk of the shipments this season. These gentlemen shipped 100 head of cattle for R. C. Gwyn, which represented less than half of Mr. Gwyn's herd, netting him $12,000. In this shipment were included the Clark Bros. cattle, of 100 head, and also 36 cattle bought from E. H. Copenhaver. The total sum realized from the 236 head of cattle was $27,732.25. The cash value of the cattle shipped from this county this fall will reach into the thousands of dollars, while the prices paid for next year's delivery are breaking all former records.

Drug-Crazed Negroes Shoot and Kill Eight Persons.

Harrison, Miss., Sept. 28.—Two drug crazed mulatto boys, brothers, this morning began a reign of terror, which ended after three white men, four negro men and a negro woman had been killed, several wounded and the two boys lynched. A serious clash between races was prevented by the arrival of company of National Guardsmen from Natchez.

The trouble started about 2 o'clock Sunday morning and continued intermittently until 1 o'clock this afternoon, when Walter Jones, the elder of the two boys, who started the firing, was lynched just after the soldiers arrived. His brother, Will, had been shot by citizens earlier in the day. Soon afterward people who had barricaded themselves in their homes cautiously began to emerge from their hiding places, and by noon the town was quiet.

The shooting was started in the negro quarter by Walter Jones, aged twenty, when a negro woman and Thead Grayson were shot and killed. Walter then went to the home of his mother and accused his brother, eight years old. Together, they proceeded through the main street of the little town, firing at every one in sight. The two boys went to the home of former Constable Frank Keinstly and when he replied to their call, Walter Jones shot him through the head. Death was instantaneous.

The Yazoo and Mississippi Valley depot is near the Keinstly home, and the two negroes went in that direction. A train had arrived from Natchez just a few moments before, and Conductor E. B. Appleby was standing at the station, talking to Flagman W. C. Bond. Without warning, the two negroes fired on them, and both fell. The negroes then directed fire on Claude Freeman, who was waiting for a train to take him to his home at Fayette, Miss. He was instantly killed.

The two negroes then made their way to a cottonseed house near by. It is believed they then realized that this wholesale killing could not long continue without opposition, and determined to make their last stand.

Citizens by this time telephoned Sheriff Hammett at Fayette. Summoning former Sheriff Gillis to accompany him, Hammett started for Harrison on horseback, arriving about 5 o'clock. A small crowd of men were firing into the seedhouse, but no one had ventured into the place. Taking a few men with him, Sheriff Hammett started towards the seedhouse. Seeing this, it is believed, Walter Jones hid in the tall grass nearby, and as Hammett approached the negro fired, instantly killing the officer. A shot from the seedhouse brought down Gillis.

Will Jones started to run and was killed. Soon after Will was killed, his brother Walter picked off Tom Weeks, a negro who was on a coal chute, Walter was then lynched.

A young man of moderate means, who marries a girl who cannot cook and do the ordinary work about a home has, to use the Linza Yates expression, got a "saft place" in top of his head. Mr. S. G. Brinkley, of North Carolina, is visiting relatives in Wytheville, and attracting a good deal of attention on account of his beard which reaches the ground while he stands, being 5 feet and 4 inches long. He is 63 years old. He says that he never shaved until he was a man of 21 years for he had no beard to shave.

A very impressive marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hutton, at Glade Spring on Wednesday last week, when Mr. E. W. Scott, of Washington, D. C., led Miss Bessie Eleanor Hutton to the altar. The bride is the daughter of one of Washington county's best known and most respected families, while the groom is a prominent horticulturist in the city of Washington.

Announcement has just been made of a marriage in Bristol which was purposely kept secret for one year. The couple were C. L. Vires, a son of H. H. Vires, prominent resident of Clintwood, Dickenson county, and Miss Cleolia C. King, a daughter of E. B. King, of Johnson City, Tenn. The bride had made her home with Bristol relatives since the death of her mother.

Emory & Henry College Notes.

Prof. Raymond Bellamy also spoke his subject, "The Bible and Education." Prof. Bellamy advanced the idea that nothing had been advanced in regard to modern law, reform, or economic conditions that could not be found in the bible. Prof. Bellamy asked if Christianity was practically applied would it not solve every social and economic problem of the world today.

Senator Swanson, following his wire yesterday, wrote the following to James A. Stone, which was received today:

"As I wired you, the post-master General will tomorrow issue an order rescinding the order discontinuing the postoffice at Bristol, Va. I am very much gratified at the final outcome of this matter. We had a hard fight, but I think we have won now for good."

College Costs of Half Century Ago.

Lexington, Va., Sept. 28.—Paul M. Penick, treasurer of Washington and Lee University recently received an old catalogue of Washington College sent to him by J. Lewis Logan of Salem, Va., of the class of 1867-71. The catalogue is for the year 1826, and presents some interesting phases of educational life.

It is an eight page publication, and contains the names of all members of the faculty and students. The faculty consisted by Rev. Geo. A. Baser, D. D., president; Edward Graham, Esq., professor of natural history; Rev. Henry Ruffner, professor of languages; John P. Hudson, A. B., tutor.

There were only sixty four students enrolled that year in the following departments: Grammar school, 4; Freshman class, 15; Sophomore class, 11; Junior class, 18; Senior class, 16.

Roanoker Been Searching for Brother Nineteen Years.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 21.—One who he hopes is the last part of a search that has continued 19 years, taking him from coast to coast, C. C. James, once of Joplin, Mo., now of Roanoke, Va., arrived in Spokane last week seeking his brother Fred M. James, aged 44 years.

Since he dropped from the sight of his relative Fred M. James is reported to have made a fortune in mining in the Spokane country and later to have changed his name to satisfy the strange indiosyncrasy that manifested itself from youth—concealing his whereabouts from his family.

"I have traced Fred through Montana and Idaho down to nine and one half years ago, but at Murray, Idaho, the trail was lost and I have been unable to get any trace of him further," said the brother. "Here and there I have met persons who have known him. One man in Montana told me he shook hands with him about a year ago. Another woman claimed to have been in communication with his wife as late as 16 months ago and said they were at Dixon, Mont., but when I went to Dixon I could find no trace of him.

"We had a family reunion at Chattanooga, Tenn., a few weeks ago and father and mother, three sisters and another brother and myself, together with all the grandchildren, were present. The family circle was complete except for Fred. We then decided that I should look through the Spokane country for my brother and I have been one month on the road.

"I have gone to all the county seats in Montana, have looked up the marriage records, have gone through city records to see if he has filed mining claims, and have gone through city directories for years back. Three times I have crossed the Rocky mountains and I am going back to Kalispell, Mont., again to make further investigation there. He lived in Kalispell before he went to Murray."

Rev. George A. Maiden, pastor of the Methodist church at Chilhowie, will retire from the ministry this fall and move to Abingdon to try to regain his health.

Reports from the Kentucky border, where the men were employed, indicates that Burton had attempted to kill Phipps prior to the fatal shooting. A witness who came here declared the shooting was accidental. It is said Phipps was shot three times.

Sweeping National Game Law.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—One of the most sweeping and far-reaching national game laws ever enacted will go into effect on Wednesday of this week, and the government has sent copies of the Weeks-McLean Migratory Bird Law to all parts of the country so as to give the authorities and the hunters throughout the country a chance to become acquainted with the provisions of the law.

The law fixes the seasons for shooting migratory birds, and also divides the country into two zones, a northern and a southern, in order that the birds may be protected to the fullest extent. Twenty-five States are in the northern zone, while the southern zone comprises the remaining twenty-three States. The shooting season for the two zones varies according to the classification of the four classes of migratory birds.

Spring shooting is absolutely prohibited, as is the shooting of migratory birds between sunrise and sunset. In most cases three months of open shooting for water fowl are allowed, and in no case will there be less than thirty days, when birds may be shot during the period of their greatest abundance.

Bane Nominated for House of Delegates.

Bland, Va., Sept. 27.—Every voting precinct in Bland county was largely represented at a Republican meeting at White Gate, Va., several days ago. The delegations met with a good representation of Giles county Republicans for the purpose of nominating a man to oppose Judge Martin Williams for the Legislature the incumbent from these two counties.

Mr. F. C. Bogle, of Bland, was elected chairman of the meeting, and after short talks by the Hon. A. P. Strother, of Pearisburg, Mr. Whitaker of Poplar Hill, Mr. Eaton, of White Gate, Mr. J. G. Munoy, and Mr. A. W. Switer, of Bland, agreement was easily reached that Giles county should furnish the nominee.

In a few well chosen remarks, Mr. A. B. Newberry, of Bland, placed the name of Mr. S. Henry Bane, of White Gate, before the meeting. Mr. Bane's nomination was seconded by Mr. W. A. Rowe, of Pearisburg, and a unanimous vote gave Mr. Bane the nomination.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR HOUSE OF DELEGATES

A. T. LINCOLN.

FOR SENATE

of Washington County.

Republican Senatorial Platform.

The Republican party of this senatorial district favor decency in public and private life, believe in temperance, and pledge its support to every effort looking to the improvement of the moral condition of our people.

As an almost universal proposition, we favor the traditional Republican doctrine of leaving to the people of each community affected thereby the right to determine all local questions, including the question as to whether intoxicating liquors shall be sold among them, and the condition of such sale, if allowed, trusting to their sound judgment to determine this great question properly as to each locality.

While we declare and affirm our belief in the wisdom of local option, or local self-government, still we believe that if the people of Virginia want to vote upon the question of State-wide prohibition, and so declare their wish, that then they have that right; and we pledge the nominees of this convention to vote for and advocate such a measure.

The legalized sale of whiskey by the town of Abingdon, always a curse to the people of Washington county, and a disgrace to our civilization, a hot-bed of corruption and evil influence, socially and politically in our county, the settlement of this question, so important to Washington county, we are willing to leave to the electorate of that community; but we do resolve that if said dispensary shall not have been abolished by the vote of the people of Abingdon before the meeting of the next General Assembly of Virginia, that in accordance with the county unit system adopted by the last Republican State convention, we pledge ourselves to ask the Legislature of Virginia to submit the question of the continuance of abolition of this dispensary to the people of Washington county including the town of Abingdon, all of whom are directly affected by its existence.

Leaves are falling. Babies don't fall away while taking Dr. Farnley's Teething Syrup. It makes sap-blood.

There is a great difference between waiting to see what will happen and making things happen. The first attitude seldom achieves much for the welfare of humanity because it is too passive. But the man who makes things happen, provided his motive and action are right, helps the world to go forward.

Bristol Postoffice May Be Abolished Oct. 31.

Gauthier, of Bristol Va., and Postmaster A. J. Roller, of Bristol, Tenn., to the effect that the order abolishing the Bristol, Va., office had been modified so as to become effective October 31. The letters were signed by Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Blakelee and made reference to the telegrams received Tuesday under which the Bristol, Va., office continued to do business after September 30.—Bristol Courier.

Chronic Dyspepsia.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia. "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicines I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.

Col. Moore Very Ill.

Wytheville, Va., Sept. 30.—Col. W. O. Moore, Democratic candidate from the county for the House of Delegates, is seriously ill at his home here and his physician gives out little hope of recovery. Colonel Moore has been sick for ten days and on yesterday his condition took a decided turn for the worse.

On account of Colonel Moore's illness invitations to the marriage of his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Waller, to Mr. Henry G. Nickols, of Detroit, which was to have taken place at St. John's church on Thursday, have been recalled, and the ceremony will be performed this evening at the home of the bride in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. ## $11,000 Missing.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 30.—Two registered packages, one of $10,000 and another containing $1,000 are missing from the registered pouch of the postoffice at Pocahontas, Va. Coincident with the disappearance of the two packages, a local detective has been asked by postoffice inspectors at Bluefield, W. Va., to locate Edwin M. Silberger, assistant postmaster at Pocahontas, for whose arrest Federal warrants have been issued charging Silberger with the robbery of the two packages.

It is now known Silberger came east as far as Roanoke on an early morning train. The conductor described the wanted man as having boarded his train at Bluestone Junction, five miles from Pocahontas.

The two registered packages were locked in the pouch and left in Silberger's charge, to be sent east to depositories, the $10,000 package by a Pocahontas, bank to Lynchburg, Va., and Northern correspondents; the smaller package contained Postmaster M. L. Mustard's remittances.

Silberger is described as being a Hungarian, having been assistant postmaster at Pocahontas for three years, with dark hair and eyes, slight build and a fashionable dresser. He is married and has two children.

Young Austin Dies.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 30.—Robert Astin, the eighteen-year-old Max Meadows youth, who was fatally cut when he accidentally fell against a circular saw at Smith's saw mill Tuesday afternoon, died about noon yesterday. Astin was so badly cut about the lower portion of his body that little hope was entertained for his recovery, although he was brought to a hospital here last night and underwent an operation. The body was taken to Max Meadows yesterday afternoon accompanied by the boy's father.

Astin had for several years been employed as a fireman at the saw mill plant, near Max Meadows, and only took charge of the saw yesterday. While the disc was in operation Astin fell against it and the sharp teeth cut their way through his left thigh and into the abdominal cavity.

Local Druggist Comes Out With a Strong Statement

Says Dodson's Liver Tone is the Best Remedy for Constipation and Shirking Liver He Has Ever Sold

Every person who has tried Dodson's Liver Tone and knows how surely and gently it starts the liver to working and relieves biliousness will bear out the D. M. Smith Company drug store in this statement about Dodson's Liver Tone.

"It is a purely vegetable liquid, that entirely takes the place of calomel, harmless and pleasant to the taste that has proven itself the most satisfactory remedy for a slow-working liver that most of our customers have ever tried. A large bottle sells for fifty cents and we do not hesitate to give the money back to any person who tries a bottle on the strength of this statement and is not satisfied with the result."

In these days of doubtful medication and dangerous drugs, a statement like the above is a pleasant assurance that Dodson's Liver Tone is a reliable remedy for both children and grownups. In buying a bottle for immediate or future use it is well to make sure you are getting the genuine Dodson's Liver Tone and not some spurious imitation that has copied our claims, but do not stand back of their guarantee. You may be certain of getting the genuine if you go to D. M. Smith Drug Company for it.

College Recital.

The faculty of Marion College gave their first Recital Monday evening at the college auditorium, was well filled with an attentive and appreciative audience. Every number was perfectly rendered. Miss Ashley was especially pleasing in Romanza, but her rendition of "The Lark" was finest, bringing out her powers as an accomplished musician more strongly than any other number.

Miss Cooper was delightful in all her selections, but she appeared at her best in the Aria from Der Freischutz.

Miss Ruggles in the Highland Ballade, especially proved her ability as a violinist, although she rendered each of her numbers artistically.

Miss Walters, as "the story teller" was charming. She was at her best in Holly's story of "The Down Hill Road," and her numbers in dialect were delightful. "A Doctor of the Old School" was enjoyed quite as much as her humorous selections.

After the recital, the guests were received in the parlor by the faculty and then given an opportunity to inspect the entire building, which was brilliantly lighted, and presented a most pleasing appearance, decorated with autumn leaves and nasturtiums.

The spacious and splendidly arranged buildings, the attractive grounds, the library, stored with the latest reading matter, the reception rooms and parlors and neat, comfortably furnished dormitories, with the building heated throughout with steam, makes this institution one of the most attractive of places to which to send girls. If any are disposed to doubt this statement, let them come and see.

A Trip to Wytheville.

On Sunday morning, Sept. 28, at 8 o'clock, the writer and his little family agreed they would make a trip East, so I asked our efficient chauffeur Mr. Bare, to rig up our little Ford car, one of the best cars of its size in the country. When the clock struck nine, we were ready to hit the roads. Of course lunch had been prepared, so our chauffeur cranked up, and away we went down Depot street, a nice smooth piece of road, as we crossed the Corporation line we began to see the nice houses of Messrs. Kent, Elier, Mitchell, Keller, Stephenson, Wassum and Poole.

After leaving the nice smooth road we found where the Pendleton Construction Company had been plowing up the old wagon road, they have actually taken part of the old road away, and I do not know what they have done with it, but I know it makes a very bad road at present, but it will be all right later. At this point we found ourselves at the covered bridge, after crossing we struck the N. & W. R. R., passing over we came to Mr. Allen's nice home and farm with its horses, cattle and hogs, thence to Messrs. Scott and Stone's nice houses near Mt. Carmel mills; this found us in the shade of a great rock covered with ferns and spruce where the sun never shines.

We then see the McDonald and Shenaul's nice homes with their fine land covered with corn and cabbage. This finds us at a fine church they call Mt. Carmel, a nice church indeed. At this church we seen the good people gathering for Sunday School.

On our way looking at the nice fertile land covered with the beautiful crops of corn, hay and cabbage, we see the pretty residences of the Messrs. Johnston, Groseclose, Scott, Repass, Snider, Fox, Hutton, Cassell, Schrock, Hash, Copenhagen and Wassum, in a fine community.

This finds us at Atkins—A nice village with two nice churches, Old Fellows Hall and other nice buildings. Then comes the beautiful farming lands and homes of the Crows, Hoofnagle's, Atkins, Snavely's and Wheeler's with their horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, and corn, grass and hay. This is a part of the great cabbage belt of Southwest Virginia. We could see great cabbage fields all through this section. We see Musser's mill with a nice touch all about, and Cedar Bluff church—a nice country church—with good people at Sunday school.

Spinning on up the line where everything looks lovely, we soon came to a bridge, and being told that it was the overhead bridge, so venturing over which is high up over the N. & W. Ry.—hence the overhead bridge. Here we come to the Groseclose section, a fine country—cabbage specialty. Two stores and a nice church. Here we come to Snavely's, Gammon's, Grubb's, Neff's, Weaver's and others with fine farms and nice houses. Fine horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, also nice droves of turkeys.

Here we come to the Rural Retreat section with its fine rock roads and see the great cabbage land of Southwest Virginia. We see fine stock, grass and houses.

Next we come to the Crockett section and find the black polande and short-horn export steers on almost every farm. What a fine country this is.

Now to the Wytheville section, with its nice rock roads and good farms and fine stock. Wytheville with its fine buildings and good streets—the streets are so nice and broad— which speaks well for any town. We went Northeast on the Tazewell road, where we found a nice limestone spring, with watercress all around it. We stopped the car here and spread our lunch on some nice flat rocks and we ate and rested.

Our chauffeur looked over the little Ford and gave it one-half gallon of water, a crank and we were ready to start back, so we went East of the city quite a distance on fine full gauge rock road, then back to the city. Here we met our old friend, C. S. Myers, taking him in with us we went around through the town looking at the nice buildings of every kind.

They have a nice court house with clock in the dome—if we just had a clock in our court house it would be so nice.

Next we went to the cemetery, where we saw something nice indeed—the people have erected a costly monument in memory of the Confederate soldiers that are resting there. We were sad to learn that there were to be three burials there that evening.

The people of Wytheville are to be congratulated for their nice town and good roads.

When the clock struck two we turned our course homeward, and as the clock hands stood at four we found ourselves at home.

To appreciate a trip like this is to make it. L. PHIPPS.

Poet's Memory Lives.
The saying "Christmas comes but once a year" is attributed to Thomas Tusser, a medieval poet (1524-1580), who seems to have been strong on epigrams. The same idea may have occurred to others, but Tusser gave it expression. He was classed as an agricultural poet, partly because he had not much education and partly because he treated simple themes, which he understood in a plain and simple way. Tusser had an ear for music, and served to order as chorister in some churches of his day. His first publication was entitled "A Hundred Good Points of Husbandrie," and later he published "A Hundred Good Points of Husbandrie Lately Married Unto a Hundred Good Points of Housewifery," and still later this was amplified into "Five Hundred Good Points of Husbandry United to as Many of Good Housewifery." Reprints of these books are still extant with an autobiography of the author in verse. Southey, himself a critical poet, characterized Tusser as "a good, honest, homely, useful old rhymster." Some of Tusser's phrases have passed into proverbs.

Looking to the Future.
The beautiful lady consulted her attorney, and was received with bows and smiles.
"I am glad to tell you," said the legal gentleman, "that your breach of promise suit has already produced results. The defendant has offered to compromise by marrying you."
"That suits me," declared the beautiful lady. "I'd rather do that than stand a chance of losing a suit. Well, you have done beautifully. What do I owe you for your services?"
"Shall we say $500?"
"We shall not. That is altogether too much."
"Well, I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll cut that bill in two if you will promise to retain me when you sue for divorce."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Proof that Marion Citizens Don't Deny.
What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results.
Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test. John H. Rider, West Main St., Marion, Va., says: "I am always telling other people what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for me. The cure they made in my case has been permanent and I have had no occasion to use them since I gave my public statement some years ago. My back often troubled me and at night I felt lame and sore. Frequently there were sharp pains and kidney weakness set in. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and thinking they might help me, I got a box from the Carson Drug Co., Thersjoun relieved the pain and annoyance from the kidney secretions."
For sale by all dealers—Price 50 cents—Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.
Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst.
I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.
I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.
I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Dr. Fahrney's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.
After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.
I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."
Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.
Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.
Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.
