Kiwanis Club Met

Marion Kiwanians turned out at the meeting Tuesday night for a short meeting. Quite a number of the Kiwanians were absent as several left early in the week to attend the meeting held in Norfolk. Though the club was short on the number present yet the spirit of Kiwanis was present and everyone enjoyed the luncheon.

After the luncheon Kiwanian W. I. Lincoln conducted the meeting and several impromptu speeches were made concerning various things including the underprivileged child, the new national park project and presented several subjects which will be presented for fuller discussion upon the return of all the delegates and when a larger number of the members are present.

After several attempts were made to get Albert Thompson and Charlie Funk to sing and one or two of the other members to stop calling for more food the meeting was then adjourned after a one hour session. This is the shortest session ever held and on account of the absence of the regular adjournment motion maker, George F. Cook, after deliberating over the matter for a few brief moments when presented the motion which was quickly seconded, as usual.

In addition to the large number of Kiwanians who left town early in the week for Norfolk the following left during the time intervening between Tuesday and Thursday night. Messrs. W. R. D. Moncreu, B. E. Copenhaver, Herbert L. Kent, C. P. Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Scott, Dr. and Mrs. J. Albert Thompson and Miss Mary Gwyn. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Staley and Mr. M. C. Morris.

MR. PEERY'S RECORD

The Democratic press makes much over the fact that Mr. Peery voted for "BONUS" for the soldiers. This is literally true. A greater bondage was never placed upon the heroes of any war than upon the American Soldiers of the World War who have been imposed upon by the enactment of an inadequate bonus bill which brings no immediate relief and acts as a bar to future legislation along this line. Mr. Coolidge vetoed this bill because he felt that at this time, with the Country staggering under unparalleled taxation, in order to meet the interest on debts created under a Democratic Administration, could stand no further burdens in the way of taxation which an adequate bonus bill would necessitate. Mr. Coolidge did not veto the bonus bill because he was not in sympathy with soldiers, for his public acts in taking care of the wounded, sick and crippled soldiers will prove to any fair-minded man that he is thoroughly in sympathy with the American Veteran and that it was his hope that legislation along this line might be delayed until a time when the Government was more able to pay a bonus, at which time an adequate and beneficial bonus could be given them instead of the inadequate and misleading bonus which has been granted. The American Legion is not pleased with the present bonus bill on the ground that it gives no immediate relief and will probably prevent the soldiers from ever getting further legislation along this line. Mr. Carter Glass, the leading Democrat of Virginia, as well as eight other Democratic Congressmen from this State, was opposed to the Bonus. If they are right in being opposed to the bonus, Mr. Peery is wrong in being for the Bonus.

Mr. Coolidge and other leading Republicans and Democrats in Congress opposed this bonus bill because they knew that the Country at this time could not afford to enact a bill that would give justice to the soldiers, and that an inadequate bill, as we now have, will do more harm than good. It has been openly charged by leaders of both parties that Congressmen and Senators voting for the so-called bonus bill did so with the sole hope, not to benefit the soldier, but to affiliate him in this campaign. Whether this is true in general or in Mr. Peery's case, we will not say, but suffice it by saying that the only two Democratic Congressmen from Virginia who were in favor of this bonus came from districts in which both parties are almost equally represented and where, at every election, a close contest is had between Democratic and Republican nominees. What caused Mr. Peery and one other Virginia Congressman to desert so completely the leaders of the Democratic party of this state and to support this bonus bill which is displeasing both to the public and to the soldier, we will not attempt to say. The public and the public alone has the privilege of interpreting his motive.

Thru the inauguration of the budget system, the disarmament conference and many other economic measures put thru by the Harding-Coolidge administration, it was made possible to relieve the people of a part of their tax burden. To this end Mr. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, drafted and proposed a tax reduction bill known as "The Mellon Plan," which was thought by Mr. Mellon would best serve the interests of the people as a whole. This bill received the approval of a greater number of the newspapers regardless of politics thruout the Country. It received the approval of business men, both large and small, of bankers and banking associations both large and small, of Republicans and Democrats, including the illustrious Mr. Carter Glass of Virginia, as being the best that was offered. But in Congress there was a group of Democrats and Republicans who sought to play politics with this tax bill, who voted against it and brought about its defeat. Action on the matter was delayed for months, while a tax weary people hopefully bore their burdens until finally a substitute bill was passed which reduced tax about half as much as the Mellon bill would have reduced them, and which has been severely criticized and condemned by the press and leaders of both the political parties. If Mr. Peery voted against the Mellon plan, against the judgment of the American business men and bankers and against the opinion of a majority of the American Press and against the judgment of such men as Carter Glass and Mr. Mellon and only saw fit to give to the tax weary American people just a part of the relief which the Mellon plan would have given, and to which they were justly entitled, then Mr. Peery will have to answer to the taxpayers of this district and explain his reasons.

Mr. Peery voted for a bill to increase the pay of postal employees, probably not from any love he had for the welfare of these employees, but from a desire to affiliate them with him as their benefactor. This bill was vetoed by Mr. Coolidge. His reasons for vetoing it were that he was opposed to increasing the operating expenses of this government and not because he is not in favor of an adequate salary for government employees. It has been the policy of this administration to economize whenever possible and this economy has brought no hardship or injustice to anyone, and has saved the people many million dollars in spite of the handicap placed on the administration by a group of Senators and representatives who seem to be saturated with the spirit of spending. And it might be well for all of us to remember while thinking of spending that the first and foremost problem before our government today is to pay back some of the forty billion dollars, on which we daily pay interest, which was lavishly spent from 1912 to 1920 by a Democratic Administration.

"RULED BY A FEW POLITICIANS"

Almost every time a protest is voiced against the do-nothing policy of the self-perpetuating political machine now operating Virginia for its own benefit, the "boys" of the machine bitterly charge either that the protestant is "knocking, not boosting" or that he speaks in behalf of some politician who is not in the councils of the ringmasters. Neither of these charges may be made against J. Scott Parrish, president of the Chamber of Commerce of Richmond. As it happens, Mr. Parrish was born here, as it happens, he has large interests here which he certainly would not "knock" for the sheer pleasure of knocking; as it happens, he is not a politician and is not in the slightest degree interested in politics either as a game or a profession. Therefore, when he speaks of conditions in Virginia, he is not open to assault by any of those who tilt in behalf of the wisdom, unselfishness and exquisite patriotism of the Swanson-Byrd-Trinkle monarchy in Virginia.

Before the East End Citizens' Association, on Thursday night, Mr. Parrish said: "The State of Virginia can make little progress as long as it is being ruled by a few politicians. We must get rid of this yoke for the good of our great old State. It is a shame that we have to stand for the government we have in Virginia today."

Mr. Parrish was and is right in the main; he is wrong in one respect only. Virginia will not progress so long as it is ruled by a machine whose operators are lacking in vision and in foresight and who see all public questions in a factional, sectional or selfish light. Virginia has not kept pace with a great majority of the States, but lags far behind in the race of States, because the few politicians who rule the ring, which is composed of many lesser rings in cities and in counties, have proved themselves to be shrewd rather than sound, temporizers rather than strong men, and self-seekers rather than servitors.

It was these politicians who guided the Legislature in disregarding the immense potential value to the State of the port of Hampton Roads, of which Mr. Parrish also spoke. And they guided the Legislature in that direction because they could not see that the development of the State's port would be of any assistance to them or to the people of their immediate vicinages. They were blind in that, as they are to the writing on the wall which dooms them.

Mr. Parrish was right in all this: he was wrong only in saying, perhaps without a deliberate choice of words, that "we have to stand for the government we have in Virginia today." We do not have to stand for it. That we are saddled with it is our own fault. If the people of Virginia, all the people, were to rise up tomorrow they could brush aside the short-sighted men who operate Virginia as easily as they now brush aside any petty annoyance. Before long, they will brush them aside—unless they mend their ways. The day when that will be brought about is being hastened by just such thoughts just such expressions, as just such men as J. Scott Parrish are voicing. Politicians, office-seekers and "outs" in general cannot bring on that day: that is the task of those who love Virginia and who are ashamed of the manner in which she is being exploited for the advantage of those who, either openly or covertly, manage her affairs.—Times Dispatch.

The above editorial from the leading democratic paper in the state has caused wide and favorable comment both in and out of the state. When leading party democrats themselves can no longer remain silent under the rule of the Oligarchy that now holds sway in old Virginia there is hope for reform. The voters of the great 9th District should rise up enmasse and vote this fall to rebuke this "political machine."

Harmon and Harmony, let this be the republicans slogan from now on, in the 9th District, until the victory is won on the Fourth day of November.

Coolidge, Dawes and Harmon; a fine ticket. They should all win in the 9th District. The nation will put Coolidge over and the voters of this District should see that they have a man in Congress who will support the President. A democrat in the next Congress will be only a figure head.

Don't forget that William N. Doak, of Roanoke, is the Republican candidate for U. S. Senate against Carter Glass. Mr. Doak is Vice President of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and prominent in labor circles. He is a citizen of high intelligence and would honor old Virginia in the U. S. Senate.

OUR POSITION

Our position is that any public official, Democrat or Republican must stand or fall upon his public acts. And it is source of great comfort to us that we are not so narrow-minded and biased that we would condemn any man because he is a Democrat or condone one because he is a Republican. Our contemporary, "The Marion Democrat," seems to rejoice over the fact that while commenting editorially in the October 16th issue of this paper on Mr. Peery's speech in Marion, that we saw fit to express ourselves in the following language: "That the people of both parties came out to hear Mr. Peery speak to see if any Congressman could make a valid excuse or justify his part in the last Congress." We used that term because it was broad enough to cover all Congressmen, because it was open and fair, because it admitted of no partiality, because we did not care to condemn Mr. Peery or any other man without giving him a fair chance to justify his public acts. The policy of this paper is to condemn alike, both Democrats and Republicans in Congress who fail to do what they should do and spend their time in accomplishing nothing really beneficial to the country. For the Republicans who fall into this column we have the same condemnation that we have for the Democrats. If Mr Peery falls into the line of the condemned, he certainly has no one to blame except himself. He bases his claim for re-election on his record in Congress and on November 4th he must stand or fall upon this record before the great tribunal, the Voter.

While Southern Democrats are making the "negro" their battle cry, as usual, their national organization is making an active appeal for the vote of the negro in the Northern states. Earl Smith, Fairmount, W. Va., Democratic editor and an associate of Clem Shaver as an "original Davis man," represented Candidate Davis in an appeal made to a conference of negro politicians in Baltimore, Md., on Sunday, to vote the Democratic ticket on the ground that a Democratic national administration would do more for them than a Republican administration would. Special efforts are being made by agents of the Davis candidacy to line up the negro vote in Indiana, West Virginia, Maryland and other pivotal states.

Resolutions.

The funeral of Mr. Joseph S. Roberts, of Broadford, was held at Rich Valley Presbyterian church Sunday, September 28th, at 11 a. m., by the pastor Rev. C. M. Chumbley assisted by Rev. J. C. Beard of the M. E. church.

The following resolutions were read: "In the death of our brother, Deacon J. S. Roberts, the Session is called upon to record the removal of one of the most loyal and exemplary members of the Rich Valley Church; and while bowing in submission to the will of the Heavenly Father we, nevertheless, put on record an expression of our profound sorrow and bereavement.

"Joseph Sexton Roberts, son of the late Edward L. and Sue Sexton Roberts, was born near Broadford, Va., July 23, 1878 and died in his home at Broadford on Friday morning, September 26th, 1924, being 46 years, 2 months, and 3 days of age.

On October 31st 1906 he was married to Kate Compton Buchanan and this union was blessed in the birth of one son, Edward Livingston Roberts, who was his father's constant companion, and who shares with his mother this great sorrow today.

On June 27th, 1915, Mr. Roberts united, by profession of faith in Christ, with the Rich Valley Presbyterian Church, and soon after was elected a Deacon in this church, in which capacity he served with fidelity till the time of his death, for several years being the Treasurer of the Board of Deacons.

"Joe" Roberts, as he was affectionately known by all classes was a man greatly beloved by all who knew him and his removal will long be felt as a personal loss and sorrow in this community. By his affable nature and kindly habits he quickly endeared himself to every new acquaintance and the affection and esteem in which he was universally held among his friends continued ever to deepen and grow. An exemplary father, a devoted husband, a faithful friend, and a loyal citizen of his community, and above all a conscientious, devout, and upstanding Christian man. Such was our brother in all his conduct and transactions.

"Servant of Christ, well done, Rest from thy loved employ: The battle fought, the victory won, Enter thy Master's joy."

The following Resolutions were adopted by the Directors of the Saltville Bank, in meeting held Saturday October 4th, 1924:

Whereas, it hath pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst, Mr. Joseph Sexton Roberts, September 26th, 1924, and whereas we recognized in Mr. Roberts a man of great value to our community for the high and noble example of his life, the fine qualities of whose intellect caused him to be turned to for counsel and advice by those who knew him, knowing as they did that he gave his best gladly and conscientiously, and

Whereas, as a christian gentleman, quiet, modest and sincere, using his influence for the right at all times, without hypocrisy, he held aloft the banner of Christ in his strong hands, and even in his declining health was cheerful and uncomplaining.

Whereas, in addition to his other qualities, his goodness of heart drew and held those who knew him best, not only in friendship, but in love, therefore,

Be it Resolved, by the Officers and Directors of the Saltville Savings Bank:

First: That we extend to Mrs. Kate Roberts and son, Edward L. Roberts, our deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

Second: That the ties of friendship, respect, and esteem which our association with Mr. Roberts as director and Vice-President of our bank will always remain an inspiration and help to us.

Third: That a copy of these resolutions be sent Mrs. Roberts, a copy be spread on the minutes of the Saltville Savings Bank, and a copy be published in the county papers.

AUCTION THE LOOK PROPERTY

Located at the West-End Main St. of Marion, Between Lee Highway and College Street, almost in the centre of the Best Residential Section of the City. There are about 7 Acres of Land, generally known as the Look Property and owned by Dr. S. W. Dickinson. This land has not been offered for sale for many years, but yielding to the very great demand for Desirable close-in Residence Lots, and for the purpose of aiding the growth and progress of Marion which will result from the opening of Main Street through to Lee Highway, Dr. Dickinson has finally consented to the sub-division and sale of this magnificent property. With a view of making a quick sale he has engaged us to sub-divide the property into Beautiful Home Sites and offer same for the NOVEMBER 1ST 10 A.M.

Regardless of Weather

We do not believe there is any other vacant land within the Corporate limits of Marion so desirable for home-sites. Almost at the door of Marion College, and only about two minutes walk to the business center, with water mains already on two sides, Lee Highway and College Street, and another main now being put down through the center of property along Main Street as it will be extended, with all other city conveniences available makes this location an ideal place to build a home. These lots should certainly be in very great demand, because there are very few close-in home-sites for sale at any price.

MARION The City Beautiful

In all the Great Southland, there is not a more attractive small city in which to live. Just the right altitude, ideal year round climate, ample supply of pure water, more beautiful and expensive homes than any other city of like population, many large industries, mercantile and financial institutions, fine schools and churches, the very highest type of citizenship, a large number of hard-surfaced roads (including Lee Highway—the "Main Street of the Nation") leading in every direction and on main line of the Norfolk & Western Railway all make it certain that MARION WILL GROW. Those who buy property at this sale or any other desirable property in or near Marion cannot fail to make BIG MONEY within a short time. And do not forget that most of the big and permanent fortunes of this country are made by the enhancement of real estate values.

A GOVERNMENT LOAN. Plenty of Money.

Farming is a business and must be conducted as such. Financing is the first essential. The Federal Land Bank was created by an Act of Congress in 1916, to supply this need for the farmer. Everyone knows that the farmer needs a long term loan in his business, also a plan by which he can gradually reduce his indebtedness and not worry about the renewal of his notes and mortgage. His experience proves to him the advantage of a co-operative system.

1. A low rate of interest. Five and one-half per cent.
2. Systematic reduction of the mortgage.
3. Long term with no renewals.
4. Farm can be sold and mortgage transferred to the purchaser.
5. The farmers receive the earnings of the Bank. (Last year The Federal Land Bank of Baltimore paid about $100,000 in dividends back to the County Associations.) Are you receiving any earnings on your present indebtedness?

If you are interested in further particulars, would advise that you come to see me. 300 other farmers of this county have taken advantage of this system. Why not you?

AN IMPRESSIVE WEDDING

On Thursday afternoon, October 16th, at five o'clock a quiet but beautiful and impressive marriage took place at the home of Mr. Arthur B. Copenhaver, when his older daughter, Elma Josephine, became the bride of Mr. M. Luther Silcox of Kingsport, Tenn.

The hall and parlor were tastefully decorated with colorful autumn branches and blooming potted plants. As Miss Katherine Scott, a cousin of the bride, played the famous bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," the bride and bride-groom, unattended, descended the stairs and entered the parlor, which was aglow with the soft light of candles and the autumn colorings.

The marriage ceremony, always half sad, however glad, was performed by Rev. E. H. Copenhaver, pastor of the Marion Lutheran church. The vows were spoken in the presence of only a few very near relatives.

After receiving congratulations the happy couple and all present were ushered into the dining room where a sumptuous wedding supper was served with Miss Ruby Copenhaver, the bride's only sister, in charge. She was assisted by Mrs. Sam Scott, her aunt, and Mrs. T. M. Legard.

The bride always pretty and attractive, never looked handsomer than on this occasion. She was elegantly attired in a navy blue travelling suit of Velvaton with fur trimmings and gray accessories. She wore a beautiful corsage of roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Silcox left for Eastern cities. They will be at home in Kingsport, Tenn., after November 1st.

Mrs. Silcox is a native of Smyth County. She is an ex-student of Marion College and for several years has been a popular teacher in the County.

Mr. Silcox is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Silcox of Pulaski. As a chemist, he is now connected with the Clinchfield Portland Cement Co., at Kingsport, Tenn. He prepared for his work at Pratt Institute, Brooklyn N. Y.

A host of friends are wishing for these young people many days of prosperity and happiness.

Sick Headache

"I have used Black-Draught when needed for the past 25 years," says Mrs. Emma Grimes, of Forbes, Mo. "I began taking it for a bad case of constipation. I don't know just who started me on taking but it did the work. It just seemed to cleanse the liver. Very soon I felt like new. When I found Black-Draught so easy to take and easy-acting, I began to use it in time and would not have sick headaches." Constipation causes the system to re-absorb poisons that may cause great pain and much danger to you! So take Thedford's Black-Draught. It will stimulate the liver and help to drive out the poisons. It isn't natural for a child to fret—nine times out of ten the mental disturbance is due to the ill effects of fermentation of partly digested food.

Of course, a laxative is needed, but the ordinary children's laxative fails in many a case to bring quick relief because it has little or no action on the liver.

Live-o-lax is a thorough cleanser—it clears out the liver as well as the bowels and so rests the stomach and helps nature bring digestion back to normal. The action of Live-o-lax really is remarkable. It can be used in place of calomel and castor oil and yet it is a pleasant-tasting, vegetable, liquid remedy that does its work without causing any kind of distress. Children love to take it and it is just as good for adults. All the drug stores have Live-o-lax.

RED-CROSS YEAR'S COST $21,366,255

Nearly $12,000,000 Devoted to Helping Victims of Great Japanese Earthquake.

OVER 3,000 BUSY CHAPTERS

Aid to Disabled War Veterans Paramount and Reaches Nearly $4,000,000.

Washington.—More than $21,000,000 was the total of funds expended in all activities of the American Red Cross during the last fiscal year, ended June 30, says a statement issued by the National organization. This expenditure was almost one-sixth of the amount of money disbursed by the Red Cross in the war year, July, 1917, to June, 1918. Of this extraordinary sum $11,531,303 was America's contribution to the Red Cross for relief of the Japanese earthquake victims. This was increased to $11,768,803 by appropriations from general funds of the Red Cross, and it represented probably the largest spontaneous outpouring of beneficence of a single nation in the history of the world.

Over 3,000 active Chapters expended during the year $4,869,000, the National organization disbursed $16,497,255.35, making the total $21,366,255.35—all for humanitarian work which reached practically around the world. In announcing the year's record of American Red Cross industry the executive officials at Washington emphasize the fact that the extensive and never-halting work of the Red Cross depends almost wholly upon the nationwide support of the organization from the memberships enrolled during the annual roll call, which this year will be in progress from Nov. 11 to 27, when everyone is asked to join or renew their membership in the American Red Cross.

Soldier Service Paramount Service in behalf of the disabled veterans of the World War and their families is a paramount obligation of the Red Cross. The organization, through its Chapters, is constantly in touch with this duty in 2,600 communities throughout the United States—the Chapters alone during the year expended in service for veterans about $2,000,000. The National organization expended $1,735,825—a total of $3,735,825 applied to assisting war sufferers toward recovery from disability and distress.

This work is constant in hospitals, sanitariums, camps, soldiers' homes, in the community. For example, in helping disabled men and women in places where they were transient residents $173,076 from national funds alone was required to help solve their problems. Every Red Cross service is ever at hand ready to meet the individual need of these men and women.

The enlisted men in the Regular Army, the Navy, and the Marine Corps, with their home ties, mean a never-ending Red Cross service which figures cannot fully interpret. In this work a total of $685,285 was applied in meeting an obligation under the Red Cross charter which has been fulfilled for over 20 years.

Domestic Operations Extensive In the past year Red Cross operations were almost wholly confined to continental United States and the insular possessions. Relief work following disasters called for immediate activities in 192 places and a total of $737,503.87 was spent in this service alone. In 33 major disasters trained workers were kept at the work of rehabilitation for many months.

In carrying on the health activities a total of $144,856.66 from Red Cross national funds and $808,000 from Chapter treasuries approximately $1,252,856 in all—was applied, giving some idea of the extent of Red Cross service in the fields of public health, nursing, nutrition instruction, and spreading knowledge of personal hygiene and care of the sick in the home.

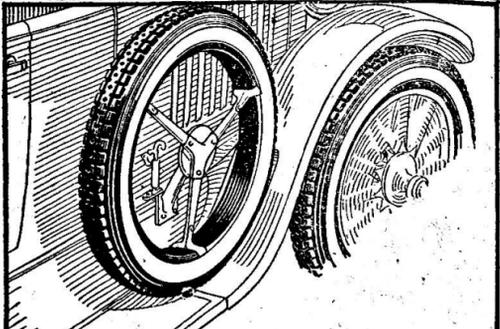

For advancing the cause of human safety, the First Aid instruction, locally by Chapters and over extensive national territory by the Red Cross instruction car covering trunk line railroads, and in teaching water safety and increasing the membership of the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps, the total cost was $288,234.71, of which $216,234.71 came out of national funds.

Army of Over 5,500,000 The Junior Red Cross in the schools—with over 5,500,000 in its "I Serve" ranks—was aided with $233,510.78 to which it is estimated the Chapters added some $277,000—a total of $510,510.78. In various other domestic activities the Red Cross spent $283,473.19, and the Chapters in their numerous voluntary services expended an additional $1,048,000 during the year.

Foreign obligations, aside from Japan, were met with national funds as follows: Relief of refugees in Greece, $200,887.18; Junior Red Cross projects, $99,579.75; League of Red Cross Societies, $165,000; other insular and foreign work, $231,855.31. The American Red Cross budget for 1924-25 is $4,647,790.85, or $868,286.96 less than the budget for the year ended last June 30.

In good deeds for all peoples in time of distress the American Red Cross never rests. Help this work with your membership dollar—join on Armistice Day.

The Methodist Young People's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. R. G. Goolsby, Monday evening, October 13th, at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Louise Johnson was leader. Quite a number of the members were present, and the evening was enjoyed by all. Right much business was discussed, and the question of the Mission Study Class was taken up.

Church Marriage

HUBBLE-HESTER

One of the most prominent social events of the season and of great interest to society throughout southwest Virginia was the wedding on Thursday evening, October 16th, of Miss Lora Elizabeth Hester and Lawrence Terman Hubble, which was solemnized in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Marion. The old church, the scene of many lovely weddings was never more beautiful and blended its stately arches, which were entwined with cedar and blanketed with quantities of autumn leaves, as a lovely background for the cathedral candles and huge baskets of yellow chrysanthemums tied with tulle, which were placed at intervals inside the cedar entwined channel railing.

Just before the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. William Lincoln wearing a handsome gown of brown with a corsage of yellow rose buds, sang in her inimitable manner, "I Love You Truly" and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." She was accompanied by Mrs. John Preston Buchanan at the piano. Her gown was an exquisite affair of brown lace with gold accessories and she also wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Promptly at 8 o'clock to the strains of the Bridal Chorus, from "Lohengrin," rendered by Mrs. Buchanan two bridesmaids, Miss Mildred Hester, sister of the bride, and Miss Irene Gills, of Roanoke, slowly proceeded up the aisle and passing through arches of evergreens and autumn leaves, entered the chancel. They wore smartly fashioned gowns of imported ombre chiffon, which was shaded from a deep amber to the palest maize with side trains of mauve chiffon, and they carried huge bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums tied with amber ribbon. They were followed by two groomsmen, Kenneth Beauge, of Emory and Henry College, and Bob Dungan, of Chilhowie. The next to enter were Miss Gaye Snyder and Miss Hornieta Wolfe wearing gowns fashioned along the same lines as the other bridesmaids, but in deeper shades of russet to maize.

They also carried chrysanthemums tied with amber ribbon. Then came Richard Richmond, of Jonesville, and Elden Prater, who completed the tableau behind the chancel railing.

Proceeding slowly to the altar which was formed by large baskets of chrysanthemums on high pedestals came the matron of honor, Mrs. Edward Shelley Green, Jr., of Roanoke, wearing a Nemeser model gown of ashes of roses chiffon and silk net elaborately embroidered in the soft tones of the maid's gowns. Her train of chiffon was caught with a beautiful buckle at the left side, and she carried a lovely bouquet of Aaron Ward roses showered with tiny buds. The little flower girl, Leona Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Greer, was dressed in a dainty ruffled frock of maize chiffon and carried a tiny gold basket of Ophelia rose buds. She was accompanied by the ring bearer, James Thompson, in a suit of black velvet, who carried the ring in a yellow chrysanthemum.

The bride, who is a petite brunette, entered upon the arm of her brother, Frank Hester, of Salem, by whom she was given in marriage. She was lovely in her bridal robes of brocaded chiffon velvet studded with myriads of silver orange blossoms and trimmed with silver petals and lace.

The long veil of tulle bound with real lace, was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms and her bouquet was of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. She was met at the altar by the groom, accompanied by his best man, Herman Thompson, of Chilhowie, and there in the soft glow of numerous cathedral candles the impressive ring ceremony of the Methodist Church was performed.

Mrs. Hubble is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Henry T. Hester and Mr. Hubble is of near Saltville and a graduate of Emory and Henry College, and is a member of the High School board of Jonesville, N. C. Mrs. Hubble's going away gown was of penny brown fawn skin trimmed in beaver, with accessories to match.

They left for an extended Northern trip and will be at home to their friends at Jonesville, N. C., after November 1.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. James D. Hester, Mrs. Edward Shelley Green, Jr., and Miss Irene Gills, of Roanoke; Miss Fink and Mrs. Laura Wood, of Salem, also Mrs. M. E. Angell, of Houston, Texas, and Mrs. D. P. Copenhaver and Miss Ruth Copenhaver, of Roanoke.

Pre-Nuptial Reception.

On Wednesday evening, October 15th, a lovely wedding reception was given at Greer's Restaurant, by Mr. Frank Hester, of Salem, Va., complimentary to his sister, Miss Lora Hester, whose marriage to Mr. L. H. Hubble was solemnized in the Methodist church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The wedding party and a few intimate friends were seated at a beautifully appointed table, the color scheme of white and yellow was carried out in the exquisite floral decorations of yellow roses and smilax, a large wedding cake in the shape of a wedding ring, decorated with orange blossoms, and the center filled with a basket of sunburst roses, and with dainty place cards, the setting for the bridal party and invited guests made a beautiful picture. An elegant menu was served the ice course, in the shape of slippers and wedding bells, and hearts.

Miss Hester was handsomely gowned in soft cream lace overdress, draped over white-satine, wearing a corsage of Ophelia rose buds.

At a late hour much merriment was furnished by the cutting of the beautiful wedding cake.

about discord into the Republican party by pretending that Lewis P. Summers was not given a square deal in regard to his resignation from the race for Congress. Among other things it was said in this Democratic editorial as follows: "SUMMERS IS LOVED FAR AND WIDE IN THIS PART OF THE DISTRICT AND HIS FRIENDS KEENLY RESENT THE TREATMENT HE RECEIVED." In the issue of this paper that followed it was plainly pointed out, editorially, that the purpose of this sugar coated editorial in the Democrat was to bring about discord in the Republican ranks, and create dissatisfaction among the friends of Mr. Summers. In the issue of this paper that followed we admitted that we loved Mr. Summers for the many years of unselfish service performed in behalf of the Republican party of the Ninth District and we again reaffirm that love. But the Marion Democrat in an editorial of this week seems very much displeased with our position, so instead of declaring how many people of this section love Mr. Summers, they pounce upon him with both feet and denounce him. Any one who will take the trouble to refer to the editorials in the Marion Democrat of October 14th and October 21st regarding Mr. Summers will not fail to sense the meaning of the first and the inconsistency of the last. And that in the heaving bosom of the editor there is either love or hate whichever may best serve his purpose to accomplish a desired end.

COOLIDGE SURE TO WIN

We hear the old time expression, "nothing sure but taxes and death." This is doubtless true but if there is anything in straw votes, political forecasts from non partizan source and impartial newspaper reports then Coolidge is sure to be elected on the Fourth day of November. This being practically conceded it is highly important that he has a Congress in sympathy with his plans and policies. If the voters of the 9th District want to get the most out of the administration they will cast their ballots for C. Henry Harmon the republican candidate who will support and not try to tie the hands of President Coolidge.

Noise was the characteristic mark in the 1920 democratic campaign. John W. Davis is trying to out do James M. Cox, he is making good headway but he is not exciting as much enthusiasm as Cox did. He is tearing his hair and saying he will quit if he fails to purify and wipe all "privilege" and "corruption" from the statute books in two years.

This is loud talk but candidate Davis is perfectly safe in his exclamations for he knows he has little or no chance of election. Promises and pledges never to be fulfilled, are easy made. He will be free from all embarrassments after the fourth of November.

THE DIGEST POLL

The Literary Digest is making the most exhaustive straw vote poll ever made in this country. They have sent out 15,000,000 cards and on October 2nd, returns were received and tabulated from every state.

The total vote received for all candidates on that date was 1,903,004 of this number Coolidge has, 1,066,214, La Fallette 442,660, Davis 384,205 with about 13,000 scattering among the other five candidates. Coolidge is leading in 36 states, Davis in 11 states, and LaFollette in one, his home state Wisconsin.

This same magazine made a poll in the 1920 campaign forecasting Harding's election by a large majority. Then only a few hundred thousand cards were sent out, this time millions. In many of the states the Coolidge percentage is larger than it was for Harding. He has a large majority over the combined vote of Davis and LaFollette. In the great states of New York, Ill. Ohio and Indiana the President is leading the combined vote of his opponents nearly two to one. One of the significant facts shown is that LaFollette is leading Davis, who in many of the northern and western states is a poor third. Davis will get the solid south and there he will stop. From all indications Coolidge is most certain to win by a large majority both of the popular and electoral vote. Now the important thing the republican and independent voters in the 9th District want to do, is to elect a congressman who is in sympathy with, and who will support President Coolidge in his policies. C. Henry Harmon will do this.

JOHN W. DAVIS SAYS HIS ISSUE IS

honesty in politics. To demonstrate more clearly what his idea of honesty in politics really is, he effusively greets as his supporter one Wm. G. McAdoo, who three months ago was declaring that the candidacy of John W. Davis represented a conspiracy of predatory wealth to get a strangle hold on government, and who was disclosed as a paid lobbyist of Doheny after he retired from the Secretaryship of the Treasury to represent oil and other interests before departments of his father-in-law's administration, including the one he had recently headed and which was manned with his own appointees. Mr. Davis has a keen nose for scandal in a Republican administration, but is totally without the sense of smell when it comes to officials of his own political persuasion.

AMERICAN EXPORTS FOR AUGUST

increased $55,000,000 over those for July, while our imports decreased over $26,000,000, according to reports of the federal Bureau of Domestic and Foreign Commerce. The balance of trade in favor of the United States for the month was $61,000,000. Our exports for the first eight months of the year aggregated $2,396,503,666, an increase over the same period of 1923 of $138,749,872. While this was going on, Democratic orators and editors were continuing to parrot the phrase: "If you do not buy you cannot sell." They were still affirming that a protective tariff is destructive of foreign trade. A joint debate between the Democratic presidential candidate and the facts should be arranged.

When the Farmer and Working Man votes on Nov. 4th for Coolidge and Harman they vote for Prosperity.

SAYS THE "TIMES-DISPATCH."

"State Chairman Byrd is expected to return to the city Friday for a conference with several party leaders, and to make further arrangements for the campaign in the Ninth District." It is too late to arrange for a speaking campaign in the district. Does further arrangements mean to raise a "slush fund" for the Ninth? How else does chairman Byrd expect to enthrone the voters out there in a Richmond Conference. His personal magnitism will not reach so far unless it is backed up by the sinews of war he hopes to get out of these conferences with "party leaders." These Richmond Conferences give notice to the Republican of the Ninth District that they are up against what The Times-Dispatch calls "The Democratic Ring" of the State, or a machine as this paper further states in an editorial of October 11, 1924, "Composed, certainly to its leadership, of self seeking men."

Let every Republican do his duty and combat the combined efforts of the state machine to control the political destiny of this great district. The election of Henry Harmon will strike the "State Machine" the heaviest blow it has had for years.

Prior to the withdrawal of Mr. Summers, democrats had few kind words to say about him. Now we hear them exclaiming that "Summers is loved far and wide in this part of the district" and that his friends especially in Washington County are planning not to vote. This is only propoganda, and the wish is father to the thought. Both Summers and his friends are enthusiastic for Harmon. Summers is actively engaged in the campaign and in a speech for Harmon at Gate City a few days ago, he boldly denounced this report an dsaid if there were any republicans opposing Harmon because of his withdrawal that "they were no friends of his" and he called upon every Republican in the District to give Henry Harmon his undivided support.

WHAT MY NEIGHBOR SAYS

Is of Interest to Marion Folks.

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills—and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Marion resident. Who could ask for a better example? Mrs. R. L. Williams, 30 Phipps Ave., gave the following statement

February 10, 1919: "Kidney trouble caused me a lot of suffering, and my back was lame and sore. Sharp shooting pains through small of back hurt terribly. Sometimes I had dizzy spells and then headaches followed. Doan's Pills cured me of the attack."

On March 26, 1923, Mrs. Williams added: "I have always been helped by Doan's when I have had kidney trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Williams had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The smart new "leg-of-mutton" sleeves, trimmings of Hudson Seal and fluted edgings are the distinguishing traits of a slim coat of suede.

A deep pile fabric fashions coat strapped and embroidered on sides and sleeves. The wide collar and cuffs are of Marmink.
